Be merciful, O Lord,
for we have sinned.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

We enter into the great season of Lent with classic readings about temptation, sin and God's grace:

- 1st Reading - The temptation of Adam & Eve
- Psalm - "Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned."
- 2nd Reading - The sin of Adam is redeemed by Christ
- Gospel - The devil tempts Jesus...and fails

First, let me be perfectly clear: Temptation is a part of the landscape of human life. From the time of our first parents at the dawn of creation, humanity has experienced temptation. We can wish all we want, but the fact remains that we are constantly facing great and small temptations throughout the course of our lives.

What's more, we have all experienced times when temptation has led us to sin. Being tempted is one thing; falling into sin is another. For once sin is a part of our lives, our souls are wounded in a way that requires God's grace to cleanse and heal.

This awareness of temptation and sin can easily lead us to a state of despair. We can fall into the trap that says "Well, you messed up. What's the point now? You might as well just give up." Admittedly, the devil would like nothing better than to let us think that there is no hope...that we are lost and without strength to find our way out of the messes of life.

Yet we start our Lent with hope. Yes, we acknowledge that temptation and sin are real, but we take comfort that this is why Jesus Christ came - to break the bondage of sin, restore our relationships with God and one another, and lead us into eternal life. The Lord knew about temptation first hand, yet not only did he triumph over Satan's testing, but he freed us through his death and resurrection.

In our moments of temptation and sin may we run to the Cross of Christ! As we encounter our own trials may we trust that the Lord stands ready to offer us help and strength - both to face what comes before us this day, and to heal us in our moments of need.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What do you plan to do during Lent this year as a way of showing you want to grow closer to Jesus?

Question for Youth: Jesus was tempted by the devil. How are you tempted? What helps you resist these temptations?

Questions for Adults: When you yourself pause to be alone with God, what distracts and prevents you from dwelling in that? Busyness? The demands of life? TV? The internet?

SOMETHING YOU CAN DO FOR OUR PRIESTS, BISHOP, AND DEACONS

Would you be willing to do something easy and yet incredibly powerful and helpful for our priests, bishops, and deacons (and seminarians and religious)? Recently, this idea was mentioned on Real Presence Radio, to do every day, and it only takes 15 seconds:

For our priests, every day stop and say:

Hail Mary,

Full of Grace,

The Lord is with thee.

Blessed art thou among women,

and blessed is the fruit

of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary,

Mother of God,

pray for us sinners now,

and at the hour of our death.

Amen.
