WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a quick look at an overview of the readings this week:

- 1st Reading - Samuel "sees" David and anoints him with the Spirit
- Psalm - "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."
- 2nd Reading - We are children who live in the light of Christ
- Gospel - Jesus heals a man who was blind from birth

Images of sight, light, and darkness appear throughout these readings, reminding us of the crucial role our sight plays in daily life. As we rely on our eyes, we recognize light and color as it interacts with our senses and guides much of our action.

God helps Samuel to see - not with human but heavenly eyesight - the qualities that will make David king of Israel; Jesus helps the man born blind to see the face of the living God. Ephesians reminds us that as children of the light we turn away from darkness and live in goodness, while the Psalmist gives us courage to walk in the darkest of valleys...confident that the Lord is at our side.

For we know that the darkness is a part of life; indeed, many of us have had the experience of darkness - where fear, doubt, and indecision hold us in a grip of paralysis - and we understand all too well our sense of loneliness and loss.

The Good News: God restores our sight - helping us to see the Lord at work in our world - and inspires us to direct our thoughts, words and actions by the light of faith. May the Light of Christ open our eyes and guide our steps through this life!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What are the things that Jesus wants you to do as his friend?

Question for Youth: Jesus helped a blind man see—and he helps each of us see the world differently. How do you see differently because you believe?

Question for Adults: Share how you, as a child of the light, in the power of Christ, produce goodness, justice, and truth for the world. What specific actions do you take to do this?

Forty years ago on March 24, 1980 Archbishop Oscar Romero was shot and killed while saying Mass. On March 26, 1978 he gave this homily, which can speak to us today as we face the Coronavirus. "People of our time anguished about so many problems, deprived of hope, seeking paradise on this earth. Seek it not here, seek it in Christ arisen. Let us find in him relief for our afflictions, for our worries, for our anguish and in him let us place our hopes."

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION IN TIME OF PANDEMIC

O Mary,
you always brighten our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick,
who, at the Cross, took part in Jesus' pain
while remaining steadfast in faith.

O loving Mother,
you know what we need,
and we are confident you will provide for us
as at Cana in Galilee.

Intercede for us with your Son Jesus,
the Divine Physician,
for those who have fallen ill,
for those who are vulnerable,
and for those who have died.

Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others
and for those who are tending to the sick
and seeking a cure.

Help us, O Mother of Divine Love,
to conform to the will of the Father
and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows,
so as to lead us, through the Cross,
to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen.

*Under thy protection we seek refuge,
O Holy Mother of God.
In our needs, despise not our petitions,
but deliver us always from all dangers,
O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.*
