WEEKLY MEDITATION

The readings this Sunday all come with an edge to them, signifying that there's a lot at stake in a life of faith. Take a look:

- 1st Reading - Jeremiah praises the Lord even as he recognizes the evil of others.
- Psalms - "Lord, in your great love answer me."
- 2nd Reading - Sin and death came through Adam; grace and peace come through Jesus Christ.
- Gospel - The Lord will acknowledge those who acknowledge Him, and he will deny those who deny him.

These readings address the reality of sin and evil in our world. We know this reality through our experience, and whether through our own actions or the actions of others we recognize that the human heart has the capacity for sin.

Yet we also recognize that God's grace is greater than the darkness. This is why Christ came into the world! Through the Lord's cross and resurrection we have hope to call upon Heaven for the strength, courage and wisdom we need to face the challenges of life.

Have we sinned? Then we seek reconciliation and forgiveness. Have we been wounded by wickedness and evil? Then we call upon the Lord's grace.

The triumph of Jesus Christ inspires us to follow the example of Jeremiah and Paul - acknowledging the Lord in this world so that we can be with Him in the next!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us not to be afraid. Name a time when you were afraid and Jesus helped you.

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us that he will remember us to his Father if we proclaim him to others. How easy is it for you to talk about your faith with your friends? How about your family or people you don't know very well?

Question for Adults: What is your responsibility to Jesus? How and when will you carry out that responsibility?

“Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” — Mt 10:29-31

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.

You are our model of a loving father.

When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.

Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.
