WEEKLY MEDITATION

The readings this Sunday all come with an edge to them, signifying that there's a lot at stake in a life of faith. Take a look:

- 1st Reading – Jeremiah praises the Lord even as he recognizes the evil of others.
- Psalm – “Lord, in your great love answer me.”
- 2nd Reading – Sin and death came through Adam; grace and peace come through Jesus Christ.
- Gospel – The Lord will acknowledge those who acknowledge Him, and he will deny those who deny him.

These readings address the reality of sin and evil in our world. We know this reality through our experience, and whether through our own actions or the actions of others we recognize that the human heart has the capacity for sin.

Yet we also recognize that God's grace is greater than the darkness. This is why Christ came into the world! Through the Lord's cross and resurrection we have hope to call upon Heaven for the strength, courage and wisdom we need to face the challenges of life.

Have we sinned? Then we seek reconciliation and forgiveness. Have we been wounded by wickedness and evil? Then we call upon the Lord's grace.

The triumph of Jesus Christ inspires us to follow the example of Jeremiah and Paul – acknowledging the Lord in this world so that we can be with Him in the next!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us not to be afraid. Name a time when you were afraid and Jesus helped you.

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us that he will remember us to his Father if we proclaim him to others. How easy is it for you to talk about your faith with your friends? How about your family or people you don't know very well?

Question for Adults: What is your responsibility to Jesus? How and when will you carry out that responsibility?

Eternal Father, Thank you for the clergy, seminarians, religious women, staff and lay leaders of our Diocese. I lift them all up to you, but especially (name) today. Sanctify him. Heal and guide him. Continue to mold him, into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May his life be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

But the LORD is with me,
like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble,
they will not triumph.

The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

HAPPY Father's Day

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless our father. Let the example of his faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, his family, may honor him always with a spirit of profound respect.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. Join us in promoting religious freedom For the Good of All.

All people desire to know their Creator. All people have a natural impulse to seek the good and to live in accordance with that good. All people can flourish when they pursue the truth about God and respond to the truth. Religious freedom means that all people have the space to flourish. Religious freedom is both an American value and an important part of Catholic teaching on human dignity. When we promote religious freedom, we promote the common good and thus strengthen the life of our nation and the community of nations. Learn more at www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek!
