We will open again, and come back stronger than ever.

Congratulations to Willem Hoegen, our only graduate this year. Willem has been an active member of our parish, altar serving, teaching Sunday School and setting a wonderful example to our young people. Willem will attend UMD in the fall. Our congratulations and prayers to Willem.

As we transition back to in person Masses, all hymnals and worship aids have been removed from the church. For those who like to follow along with the worship aid, you can find it in the myParish app. You are encouraged to use your smart phone or tablet during Mass if you would like to follow along.

All parishioners and friends of our parish

Our new parish church building project is still moving forward. The building committee had a meeting this week to review the revised building prints and make necessary changes. The architect will now the revisions and the prints forwarded to Father Andrew and Bishop Powers for their approval. After we receive the approvals, we will schedule a time in the parish hall for parishioners to view the prints and ask questions. We are currently looking at a late August or early September for a start date of construction.

To date, we have received $530,00 in pledges and have received payments on the pledges of $334,000. For those who have still not made a pledge, we ask that you seriously consider it. If you need a pledge form, contact Sue and she will mail the form. If you have any further questions concerning making a pledge, please contact Greg Amys at 218-340-4683

WEEKLY MEDITATION

The celebration of the Eucharist is the highest form of Christian prayer. Jesus defines the bread and wine and his body and blood, and then he commands his disciples to “take and eat...take and drink” in his memory. Besides the readings we will hear at Mass, some other crucial Scripture passages testify to this essential element of our faith:

- Matthew 26:26-29

- Mark 14:22-26

- Luke 22:14-23

- John 6:51-58

- 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

What happens when we go to Mass? What do we encounter when we open our hearts to this hour long prayer? Here are few key points:

- We hear a good selection of the Word of God

- We receive Jesus Christ in Holy Communion

- We unite in prayer with others

- We pray for the sick, those who have died, and our special needs

- We have a few moments for silence and reflection

Of course in our fast paced, entertain-me-so-I-won't-be-bored world, we can look upon the central prayer of the Church and wonder why the Mass doesn't “get modern.” The reality is that the Mass continues to adapt to the culture and times. The real question is this: Do I come to the Mass with an open heart to encounter the Lord and his disciples? Do I come with a focus to offer my life to be renewed by Christ?

Here are seven ideas for getting the most out of Mass:

Read the Sunday Scriptures ahead of time. This way you can get a sense of the key themes and be better prepared to follow the homily.

2.

3. Come prepared to pray. This seems obvious, but many people often don't come with their “list” of intentions and needs. Take some time before Mass to consider who or what in your life could use a prayer.

4.

5. Pray before Mass starts. Sometimes we can rush into church, drop into a pew, and try to follow along with the Mass. Give yourself 5-10 minutes to reflect on the past week, look to the next, and ask the Lord for guidance and strength. It really helps!

6.

7. Receive Holy Communion with heightened awareness. This is Jesus Christ who offered his life on a Cross for the salvation of our souls. It's his blood that was poured out for the forgiveness of our sins. Make that moment of receiving Him intentional and reverent; let the “Amen” come from your heart!

8.

9. Pray after receiving Holy Communion. You have just received the Lord Jesus into your body – you have become a living Tabernacle – there is no better time to offer the deepest, most important issues on your plate to the one who loves you.

10.

11. Consider one takeaway that you experienced from every Mass. Name one thing (just one is perfectly fine) that struck you at every Mass. Perhaps it was a point in the homily, a line from a hymn, someone you prayed for, something you experienced, or an insight that came to you in silence. By naming one takeaway you actively participate in the prayer and engage your faith as you live your life.
