Lord, I Love Your Commands.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here's a quick review:

- 1st Reading - Solomon asks God for wisdom and understanding
- Psalm - "Lord, I love your commands."
- 2nd Reading - All things, good and bad, work for good for those who love God
- Gospel - When you find the pearl of great price, you sell everything you have to acquire it

If the Lord would grant you one request, what would you ask for? We can learn a lot about ourselves by what we seek, and sometimes we discover when we get it that it might not have truly been the best thing. Yet, it is the desire in our hearts, however, that tells us if we are on the right track.

Solomon asked to be wise and understanding...a wonderful response!

Jesus uses the parable of the pearl to remind us that there are some things in life so precious that other wishes and requests pale in comparison. With this in mind, here are a couple of thoughts to consider:

- What is it you often wish for?
- Are there any blessings in your life that you might be taking for granted?
- Do you have your priorities organized? Are the most important things getting your time, effort and attention?

God will take the sum of our lives - good and bad - and bless it with grace. As we seek the Lord today, may we bring our hearts and offer ourselves....so that our response will draw us closer to Jesus Christ and one another.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: If you could be with Jesus, what would you trade from your own things for that?

Question for Youth: Today's gospel reminds us that God's kingdom is worth sacrifice. What do you need to sacrifice in order to follow God in your own life? Why are you willing to make that sacrifice?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words what the Reign of God is for you personally, and use a parable to describe it: "The reign of God is _____."

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

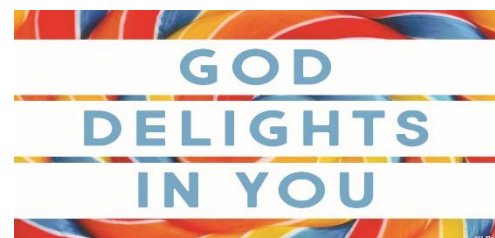

How has C-19 Affected Our Society and Those in Need?

We are a different type of busy, serving in a different way, and serving more who are homeless.

Over the past nine months our Society has been contacted by 896 households (compared to 811 over the same period last year) and we have distributed $58,000 (last year $69,000). The good news - food resources are the best they have been and stimulus monies and government programs to help those facing eviction or trying to get out of homelessness have provided more direct aid to those in need than in the past. The challenge - shelter for those who are homeless has become more limited resulting in 94% of our expenditures directed to providing shelter to those who are homeless and vulnerable to C-19 (pregnant women, families with children, the physically ill and elderly).

We continue to meet with people in visit conference calls and have delivered nearly $2,000 in goods directly to those in need in the past three months (tents, clothing, household goods, and food to people living in motels).

We are still unable to accept goods due to the Catholic Charities Building not having public access and a safe way to handle donations. Financial donations can be mailed to: SVDP 1416 Cumming Avenue, Superior. If you or anyone you know has a need or you wish to learn more about volunteering please leave a message at 715-398-4039. Thank you for your ongoing support.
