WEEKLY MEDITATION

In the ancient world there were three plants that were very important:

- * wheat -- for making bread
- * olives -- for making oil
- * grapes -- for making wine

These three foods were central to the diet of the people in the Gospel story. Bread was the staple; it was unleavened and similar to our "pita bread" today. Oil was used for cooking, bathing, cleaning, perfume, and household applications. Wine was the principle alternative to water - and when added to water, the alcohol in the wine insured a certain level of safety.

Vineyards were a common part of people's experience. Even today the Mediterranean region is filled with vineyards, some small, others massive. Thus, when the Scriptures refer to vineyards, the image was familiar and easily understood.

Keeping a vineyard is hard work! The vines need constant attention: pruning, weeding, watering, and keeping them tied up off the ground. Patient care is required as workers routinely check the health of the plant so as to prevent any disease.

In the Gospel today we hear how a landowner leased his vineyard out to tenants who worked for him. At harvest time he sent his servants to gather his portion of grapes, only to have them rejected and injured. Finally he sent his son who was killed by the tenants.

One way to understand this story is to see the tenants as the people of Israel. They rejected the servants (the Prophets) sent by the landowner (God), and killed the only son (Jesus). Simply put, their work in the vineyard did not yield good fruit; their actions resulted in rejection and death. But what happens when we place ourselves in the story? What happens when we see ourselves as the servants in the vineyard?

Every day God sends messengers into our hearts. We know how we should live and offer our lives through many sources: our conscience; friends & family; the Scriptures; the teaching of the Church.

Let's face it. We work in a different vineyard, the garden of life. We labor as tenants on the Earth, bearing fruit that will one day be harvested by the Owner. May our work in the vineyard be worthy when he calls, and may our reception of his servants show our respect and our love.

Fr. Andrew

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

We wish to thank everyone for helping to make St. Vincent de Paul Day a success! We were able to celebrate our 20th anniversary and the national 175th anniversary, raise awareness and some funds and enjoy fellowship on a lovely fall day. Fr. Lee Flaherty celebrated the 10:30 Mass at the Cathedral. The Mass concluded with a commissioning of Vincentians. At noon a letter was read from Bishop Powers and Mayor Jim Paine read his official proclamation and declared the day, September 27, 2020, St. Vincent de Paul Day. The Friends of the Poor Walk followed and attendees enjoyed a delicious cookout lunch. Lucky winners went home with lovely prizes and the silent auction was a big success.

Our event raised awareness, raised over $3000, and raised our spirits!

Thanks to our sponsors, donors, and volunteers for their generosity. For more information visit us on Facebook at facebook.com/SVPSuperior.

If you or someone you know is in need of assistance, please leave a message for us at 715-398-4039.

RCIA

RCIA Starting in October

Adults are drawn to the Catholic Church for many reasons and in many ways. They come to the Church with varying levels of knowledge and understanding but the one constant is that each has many questions. RCIA – the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults - is the process that allows adults to explore Catholicism, increase their understanding and get answers to their questions in an environment that is welcoming and responsive.

RCIA for the cluster of parishes known as Superior Catholics will begin in October. There will be two initial in-person meetings to allow participants to pick up materials, meet the RCIA team, and learn about the technology being used. These meetings are scheduled for Thursday – October 8 and 15 – 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Physical distancing will be maintained. Masks worn appropriately are required.

Beginning October 22, all RCIA meetings will be held virtually. If you are interested in participating – or know someone who is – please contact Kathy Drinkwine at Kathy.RCIA@gmail.com or at 715 394 3005. If there is no answer, please be sure to leave a message.

Caring for God's Vineyard

Today's readings are troubling texts. This is not because of what they say, but because of how they have been interpreted through the ages. In the first reading, despite everything the owner has done, the vineyard identified as Israel/Judah has brought forth wild grapes. In the Gospel the issue is with the trustworthiness of those who work and care for the vineyard. It is clear that Jesus is criticizing the leaders of his day with a failure of leadership. For this reason, leadership will be taken from them and given to others.

Both of these readings have been interpreted as condemnation of the Jewish people. This has sometimes resulted in anti-Semitism. We must remember that both readings reflect internal problems—something that all religious bodies experience. Despite their failure, the people of Judah were still called God's "cherished plant" (Isaiah 5:7). In the Gospel, leadership was taken from some Jews and given to other Jews—not to outsiders. One religious tradition didn't replace another.

We experience similar struggles in today's Church. As the vineyard of God, what kind of fruit do we produce? After all God has done for us, how do we respond? How faithful are we in caring for God's vineyard? This is a difficult time with respect to religious leadership, but how supportive are we of genuine local Church leadership? You and I have been entrusted with the growth and health of the Church. How good have we been at caring for that vineyard?

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

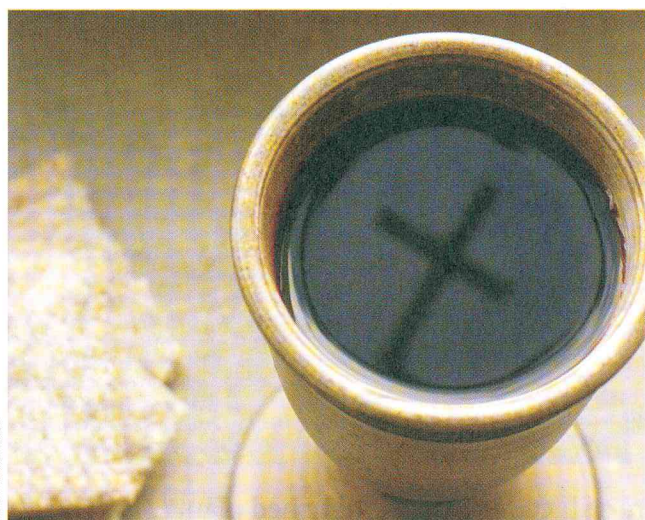

- * We are the Church. How do we handle some of its internal problems?
- * We pray for the leaders of the Church at every liturgy. Make those prayers your own.

Dear Padre,

Aren't we discriminating against other Christians when we don't celebrate the Eucharist with them?

You have to keep the Church's intentions in mind: Are we excluding to make people feel left out, or are we excluding to uphold the dignity and sanctity of the Eucharist?

Everyone is welcome to celebrate the Eucharist—there's only one part they can't participate in. That might sound like a cop-out, but Catholics believe that the Eucharist is the actual Body and Blood of Christ. For it to be true Communion, everyone who receives it must believe the same thing about it.

In its Guidelines for the Reception of Communion, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops says, "Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission" as outlined in canon law. "All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another" (GRC).

—Fr. Patrick Keyes, CSSR
Sundaybulletin@Liguori.org

Many members of our communities yearn to receive the Eucharist at one table, as the concrete expression of full unity. We experience the pain of those who share their whole lives, but cannot share God's redeeming presence at the Eucharistic table...We long for this wound in the Body of Christ to be healed.
