WEEKLY MEDITATION

I can only imagine the surge of excitement that went through the disciples as the word was shared. Beyond the agony of the Cross and the sorrow of the Tomb on that first day of the week the message was proclaimed: He's Alive!

And everything changes. This group of disciples - bound by fear and selfishness - are transformed with a new strength and conviction. Their encounter with the Risen Lord will empower them to face the obstacles of this world with joy and hope. They have seen the risen Christ...what is there to fear? They have embraced the one who has conquered sin and death - there is NOTHING that can shake their confidence in the light of Easter morning.

This same strength comes to us. Like the first disciples, we can turn to Jesus and allow his saving grace to renew us with a strength far beyond our own. We can claim a hope that sustains us in the midst of our challenges and struggles. The Easter sunrise brings light to the darkest corners of our hearts.

What in our lives needs to be touched by Jesus Christ? We are invited to boldly come forward, receive his resurrection strength, and face whatever this world presents with confidence: the victory of Christ enlivens us to travel through life with the conviction that the grace he gave his disciples continues in our hearts today.

May this Easter season be a time of transformation and renewal; a time where we embrace the gift of our lives with a new freedom and conviction. In the light of this Easter, may we follow the one who leads us from sin and death to the abundance of life...in this world, and the world to come.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What sacrifices do you make for those whom you love?

Question for Youth: Even the disciples had a hard time understanding Jesus' Resurrection – it is that surprising. What does Resurrection mean to you? What does Easter mean to you?

Question for Adults: In what ways has God called you to die in Christ? How is this expressed in your own life?

CATHEDRAL NEWS

Divine Mercy Sunday

St. Faustina, a Polish nun, was gifted with mystical visions of our Lord Jesus. Her diary records her dialogue with Jesus as He proclaimed His message of mercy, including these 2 quotes from her diary:

“Proclaim that mercy is the greatest attribute of God. All the works of My hands are crowned with mercy.” (No. 301)

“I realize more and more how much every soul needs God’s mercy throughout life and particularly at the hour of death. This chaplet (of Divine Mercy) mitigates God’s anger, as He Himself told me.” (No. 1036)

Divine Mercy Sunday falls on the first Sunday after Easter, this year on Sunday, April 11. Because of a First Communion Mass happening that afternoon in the Cathedral, we will celebrate Divine Mercy with a 30-minute livestream on Sunday, April 11, from the Cathedral. The livestream will start with a rosary at 12:00 noon and end at 12:30 pm with the divine mercy chaplet starting at 12:20 pm, and a few words about Divine Mercy in between.

We are a people surrounded by oceans of mercy, which brings great hope and comfort. Spend a half an hour of mercy with this livestream.

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.
