Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HAM AND MEATLOAF DINNER

Awesome news! St. William's will be having their sit down Ham and Meatloaf Dinner on Sunday, September 12th.

In conjunction with the dinner we will also be having a silent auction. We are in need of any donation that you will be able to donate. (new or slightly used items)

Also, if you have planted a garden, it would be appreciated if you could donate an extra cabbage, beets or any vegetable needed for the dinner; with prices "sky rocketing" we need your help. Thanks

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a look at some of the key themes that surface in the readings for this 17th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - 2nd Kings 4:42-44

- Chapters 4-6 feature some miracles performed by the prophet Elisha.
- In this passage, the people have more than enough to eat from 20 barley loaves.

Responsorial Psalm - 145:10-11,15-18

- "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs."
- God provides for the needs of the people.

2nd Reading - Ephesians 4:1-6

- We are urged to live in a virtuous manner of life, worthy of the call we have received.
- We seek to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace.

Gospel - John 6:1-15

- Jesus meets the physical needs of the people who have been listening to him.
- Upon the blessing of Jesus, the five loaves and two fish are more than enough for the 5000 people.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you share with others what you have?

Question for Youth: Generosity is key to today's Gospel. What do you have that you should be sharing with others? Think of your possessions, your talents, and your time. How can you use these for the good of others?

Question for Adults: In what ways do you generously provide for the needs of others who have little or nothing?

So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat.

JOHN 6:13

More than Enough

Two stories today tell of people hungry for bread who amazingly receive more than enough. In both the first reading and the Gospel passage, a few loaves feed a multitude of people, and there are baskets of leftovers. How did this happen? Did the loaves multiply before their eyes? Did more food drop from heaven? Who of us would not have been thrilled to witness a miraculous feeding like that?

These stories are rich in religious meaning. First, they are meant to show that God meets the needs of vulnerable people—and meets those needs in ways only God can. Second, the surplus bread reveals the overabundance of divine graciousness. God gives us much more than we need. In other words, God's generosity is boundless. Third, these marvels don't just happen out of the blue. They occur through the agency of very ordinary people. In the first reading it is Elisha's unnamed servant who distributes the loaves. The miracle seems to happen in his very hands. In the Gospel passage it is the disciples of Jesus—ordinary, questioning people like you and me who gather up twelve baskets of leftovers.

- * How does God work through you to meet the needs of others in your life?

Did this event really happen? Of course, it did. In fact, these kinds of occurrences continue today. God is continually meeting our needs. God's generosity is always boundless. And God still accomplishes marvelous things in our lives through very ordinary people. The problem is that we often fail to realize this. We sometimes wish to see loaves of bread miraculously appear.

Dear Padre,

Previously, this column said Mass should be offered in several languages so everyone can participate. There's an alternative: the Latin Mass. In the past, all nationalities could attend and unite themselves to the sacrifice on Calvary without the barrier of the vernacular. There's one God and one Church. There should be one Mass.

Fundamentally, the Mass is meant to be inclusive, by its very nature! The primary purpose for eucharistic celebrations in both the ordinary form (vernacular) and extraordinary form (Latin) is to give glory to God in communion as God's people. This bears mentioning, since the Church's allowance of both forms of one Mass isn't meant to be divisive—although in practice, it can be.

Jesus and his followers likely spoke Aramaic, so the earliest communal gatherings to break bread were celebrated in their native tongue. Likewise, the Mass in its early development was offered in the vernacular—Greek. When Latin became the pervasive language of the people, the Mass switched to Latin. Thus, Mass in the vernacular is not a “barrier.” On the contrary, in allowing the Mass to be celebrated again in the language of the people, Pope Paul VI intended it “as a help in witnessing to and strengthening the unity of all” (Promulgation of the Missale Romanum, 1970).

Our unity as believers in one God, one Church, and one Mass is predicated on far more than a uniform language.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

[The Church] is not a fortress but a tent able to enlarge her space and give access to all. Either the Church “goes forth” or she is not a Church; either she is on a journey always widening her space so that everyone can enter, or she is not a Church.
