WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in the readings on this 16th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds that mislead and scatter the flock.
God will appoint shepherds who will protect the flock, and none shall be missing.

Psalm - 23:1-6

"The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."
God guides, protects and leads us to the Lord's house, our final dwelling.

2nd Reading - Ephesians 2:13-18

Christ is our lasting peace, reconciling us to God through the Cross.
We are no longer far off, but have now drawn near through the blood of Christ.

Gospel - Mark 6:30-34

Having reported all that they have done, Christ invites the apostles to come away and rest.
Crowds follow Jesus, and he takes pity on them...for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you keep Sunday as a day of rest?

Question for Youth: Jesus was moved with pity for the people who were gathered. Who are the people you are moved with pity for? What can you do to help them?

Question for Adults: Why is rest important, and how do you make sure you get enough of it in your own life?

RETROUVAILLE

A LIFELINE FOR MARRIED COUPLES

Announcing a Lifeline of Hope and Healing for Struggling Marriages! When the old ways aren't working, the Retrouvaille Program helps couples restore their marriage and rebuild loving relationships. This three-phase program begins with a weekend stay in a peaceful retreat setting. Participants are not asked to share their struggles with the group, but instead have the opportunity to interact in privacy with their spouse. Team couples are volunteers who share their personal stories and the tools of the program that helped them rediscover their love for each other. Therefore, costs are affordable and no couple is turned away because of limited finances. If you are wondering if this program is right for you or a loved one, find more information and answers to Frequently Asked Questions at www.HelpOurMarriage.org Register online, or call toll-free for a personal contact with our registration couple: 1-877-922-HOPE (4673) All calls are fully confidential. The next program begins on August 20, 2021. Space is limited. (August 10 reservation deadline)
