FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

ALPHA COURSE

Thursday, September 30th ~ 6:30-8:00 PM
 Cathedral Kress Hall

Topic: *Is there more to life than this?

The ALPHA course is for anyone. While the course is open to anyone in our parishes, all religious backgrounds are welcome; what is crucial is being open to listening and discussing as we seek to find answers to some of the great questions about life. There is no cost to attend, but we ask that you register so that we have adequate materials on hand. To register, please call the Cathedral Office at 715-392-8511 and leave your name and phone number of those attending.

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for filling out a Catholic Services Appeal Envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. We have raised $16,277 (32 households) toward our Catholic Services Appeal goal. There are many challenges that face us today. The shortage of priests is one such challenge. The responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a look at some of the main themes in the readings for the 26th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Numbers 11:25-29

- Some of the spirit of Moses is bestowed upon seventy elders who now prophesy.

- Eldad and Medad were not on the list of Moses, but the spirit still came upon them; when Joshua attempted to have Moses stop them, Moses prayed that the Lord would make everyone a prophet!

Psalm - 19:8,10,12-14

- "The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart."
- The Psalmist praises the law of the Lord and exhorts others to follow God's commands.

2nd Reading - James 5:1-6

- James calls on the rich to weep over their impending miseries as their wealth will be destroyed.
- Included is a list of the evils they have done for their own benefit at the expense of others.

Gospel - Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48

- Jesus stops the Apostle John from preventing someone who is casting out a demon in the Lord's name.
- The Lord then teaches that anything that keeps us from the kingdom of God should be "plucked out" lest it lead us to destruction in Gehenna.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: In what specific ways do you share with the poor from what you have been given?

Question for Youth: Who are the people you have met who are against you? Are there people who persecute you because of your faith? How do you treat these people?

Question for Adults: In today's worldwide community, who are the rich and what does God want of them?

Every First Friday of the Month SACRED HEART DEVOTION at Cathedral of Christ the King

A Short History of the First Friday Devotions

The devotion of the nine First Fridays was requested by Our Lord Himself in the revelations He made regarding His Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a nun of the Visitation Order who lived in France in the 17th century. These revelations precipitated a great increase of devotion to the Sacred Heart, including the establishment of the feast day that takes place on the third Friday after Pentecost. Our Lord made twelve promises to those devoted to His Heart, and among them is the following:

"I promise you in the unfathomable mercy of My Heart that My omnipotent love will procure the grace of final penitence for all those who receive Communion on nine successive first Fridays of the month; they will not die in My disfavor, or without having received the Sacraments, since My Divine Heart will be their sure refuge in the last moments of their life."

The particular intention of the First Friday devotions is to offer reparation for the innumerable offenses committed against the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The requirements for fulfilling the devotion and obtaining the promise are to receive Holy Communion on the first Friday of nine consecutive months, as Our Lord instructed, and to have the intention of making reparation to the Sacred Heart.

In these days of great turmoil in the Church, it is of particular urgency that we begin or renew our devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the spirit of reparation. The practice of the nine First Fridays is a particularly powerful way to do this, as He Himself gave us this devotion as a sure way of offering reparation to Him and consoling His Sacred Heart. Let us not waste such an opportunity, then, but rather take full advantage of the means that He has given us.
