Welcome. We would like to welcome Aaron and Trisha Buckmaster and their children Lydia, Lylah, and Parker to our parish family. Please say hello to them in the hall after Mass.

CSA

Thank you for filling out a CSA envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. Our goal is $14,132 and 100% participation. There are many challenges that face us today. The shortage of priests is one such challenge. The responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge. Please fill out your pledge form for whatever you can afford. Gifts are confidential.

Craft Fair is back at St. Anthony this Fall!

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in the readings for the 27th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Genesis 2:18-24

God makes different animals for the man (who gives them names) but none are a suitable partner.
God casts a deep sleep on the man and fashions a woman from one of his ribs.

Psalm - 128:1-6

"May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."
The man who follows the Lord is blessed in his family, with sufficient food and prosperity.

2nd Reading - Hebrews 2:9-11

The passage reflects on the person of Jesus, who was "for a little while" made "lower than the angels" that he might taste death.
Christ is the one through whom all things exist, and he made our salvation perfect through his suffering.

Gospel - Mark 10:2-16

Jesus responds to a question from a Pharisee about divorce.
Jesus then says, "Let the children come to me" when they were being prevented by the disciples.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When you make a promise, why is it important to keep it?

Question for Youth: What has your family taught you about God and living a faithful life? How do you show your family what they mean to you?

Question for Adults: How is God's fidelity reflected in human marriage? To whom are you committed like this?
