CSA

Thank you for filling out a CSA envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. Our goal is $14,132 and 100% participation. There are many challenges that face us today. The shortage of priests is one such challenge. The responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge. Please fill out your pledge form for whatever you can afford. Gifts are confidential.

If you or someone you know needs prayers, you call Mary Rieckhoff and she starts. the calling tree. We will continue to use the old one for a couple of weeks but please let me know if you wish to to be on the prayer tree--even if you are already on it, let me know if you wish to continue. Phone numbers too, please! Sign up in the parish hall or by emailing me.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a look at some of the central themes in the readings for the 29th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Isaiah 53:10-11

The Church applies this passage of the "suffering servant" to Jesus Christ, whose saving passion and death is offered for "the many."

This passage is referenced heavily during Holy Week.

Psalm - 33:4-5,18-20,22

"Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you."
Psalm 33 praises God and encourages us to turn to the Lord with open hearts.

2nd Reading - Hebrews 4:14-16

The humanity of Jesus is emphasized, and he understands our temptations and weaknesses.

Because he became like us, we can confidently approach the Son of God to receive mercy, grace and help.

Gospel - Mark 10:35-45

Jesus responds to the question posed by James and John with a reflection on the role of suffering.

The Lord then shows how service to others reveals true greatness in the kingdom of heaven.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Name some ways that you can serve others.

Question for Youth: Jesus changed the way we think of leadership to be someone who serves others. How are you a leader in school, your family, the parish and/or your community?

Question for Adults: What are some times in your own life when you have the chance to be last instead of first?
