STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the Kingdom. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly that "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."
 May good stewardship cause us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for filling out a Catholic Services Appeal Envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. We have received in excess of $55,000 toward our Catholic Services Appeal goal. There are many challenges that face us today. The shortage of priests is one such challenge. The responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the central themes in the readings for the 33rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Daniel 12:1-3

- Michael the great prince and guardian of the people shall arise.
- During this time of upheaval there will be an accounting for the good and the bad.

Psalm - 16:5,8-11

- "You are my inheritance, O Lord!"
- We rejoice in the Lord who does not abandon us, but shows us the path to life.

2nd Reading - Hebrews 10:11-14,18

- Jesus Christ offers one sacrifice for sins and takes his place at the right hand of God.
- Compared with the sacrifice of the Levitical priests, Christ's perfect offering makes possible our forgiveness.

Gospel - Mark 13:24-32

- Jesus teaches about the end times where there will be tribulation and judgment.
- The Lord uses the example of a fig tree to teach the disciples how to read the sign of the times.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: If Jesus came to visit you today, what would you do? What would say? How would you act?

Question for Youth: If today was your last day, what would you be most thankful for? What would you regret?

Question for Adults: If today was your last, what would you do with it?
