This Sunday's 2nd Reading Hebrews 10:5-10 Jesus says that he has come to do God's will. Are you looking for the answer to God's will in your life? Perhaps Spiritual Direction would help you find the answers. A spiritual director or companion can help you discover what God is saying through the events and relationships in your life, it is confidential and can be done in person or online. WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the central themes in the readings for the 3rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Nehemiah 8:2-4a,5-6,8-10

- After the Babylonian captivity, the people together to hear Ezra read God's holy law in the scriptures.
- Ezra and Nehemiah instruct the people to make the day holy, rejoicing in the Lord for their strength.

Psalm - 19:8-10,15

- "Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life."
- The precepts and law of the Lord give wisdom, joy and enlightenment.

2nd Reading - 1st Corinthians 12:12-30

- Paul uses the example of the body to illustrate how many different parts work together as one.
As the Body of Christ we recognize the unique contributions of all people and unite together for the glory of God.

Gospel - Luke 1:1-4; 4:4-21

- Luke introduces his Gospel as a way to offer an orderly sequence of the events of Jesus.
In the synagogue at Nazareth, the Lord reads from the scroll of Isaiah and proclaims that this prophecy is fulfilled.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus is present to each of us in a different way. Tell about a time that you knew Jesus was with you.

Question for Youth: Name a moment or situation in your life where Jesus was present. What are some situations or places where you wish that Jesus was more visible?

Question for Adults: Jesus came to bring glad tidings to the poor and set free the enslaved. How has this mission of Christ in the world affected you personally?
