WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in the readings for the 13th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - 1st Kings 19:16b,19-21

- God tells Elijah to anoint Elisha as a prophet to succeed him.
- Elijah throws his cloak over Elisha as he is plowing with 12 oxen.

Psalm - 16:1-2,5,7-11

- "You are my inheritance, O Lord."
- We rejoice and take refuge in God who counsels and protects us.

2nd Reading - Galatians 5:1,13-18

- We are called to freedom through the saving action of Christ.
- We live in the Spirit, who calls us to avoid the desire of the flesh and love one another.

Gospel - Luke 9:51-62

- Jesus is rejected by a Samaritan village on his journey to Jerusalem. The Lord responds to some of the people who claim to want to follow him.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: To follow Jesus means to do what is right. Name a time this past week when you followed Jesus by doing the right thing you were asked to do, the first time, without an excuse.

Question for Youth: The people in the story had lots of reasons why they couldn't follow Jesus. What makes it hard to be a disciple of Jesus? Why do you make the choice to follow Jesus even though it is hard?

Question for Adults: Sometimes we are like the people in the Gospel and have many excuses for why we cannot follow Jesus. Name a time this past week that you followed Jesus even though you had many excuses.
