Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life?" - Mt 16:24b-26

ST. WILLIAM PASTY SALE

Pasties are available to purchase after Mass on Saturdays and at the Ham Dinner. They are $5 each.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in the Mass Readings for the 23rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Ezekiel 33:7-9

- God charges the prophet to warn the people of their wickedness.
- If the prophet does not speak, both the people and the prophet will die.
- If the prophet speaks and the people do not listen, the people will die, but the prophet will be saved because he did what the Lord commanded.

Psalms - 95:1-2,6-9

- "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."
- We acknowledge the Lord and bow down to worship the God who guides us.

2nd Reading - Romans 13:8-10

- Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another.
- Love fulfills all the commandments of the law.

Gospel - Matthew 18:15-20

- If someone sins against us, we are to strive to address the fault, first with the person, then with others, and finally (if all else fails) with the church.
- Where two or three are gathered together in the name of Jesus, the Lord is present in their midst.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What is one thing you would do for someone whom you loved?

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us about the importance of community and friendship. When have you helped heal an argument between friends? How did that feel?

Question for Adults: How do you make sure you follow the way of love as described by Paul in today's reading? What steps do you take to eliminate the unloving — grudges, hatred, prejudice, or others.
