There are many challenges that challenge us today, the shortage of priests is one such challenge, the responsibility our parish has to provide help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocat5ions and the education seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

Please consider a pledge of any amount “no amount is too large or too small”.

Thank you to our children, religious ed teachers, and CRE Tammy Brown for our beautiful children's mass last Sunday. They truly did a fabulous job.

God bless our children and keep them strong in their faith.

Thursdays in October, due to the lack of priests, we will be having Communion services at 8:30 followed by adoration. Fr. Anthoni will be visiting his family in India. Mass intentions for those days have been rescheduled for the beginning of 2024

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes in the Mass Readings for the 25th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Isaiah 55:6-9

- Isaiah urges the people to seek and call upon the Lord while he is near.
- God's thoughts and ways are not like ours; like the heavens are high above the earth, so are God's ways high above our own.

Psalm - 145:2-3,8-9,17-18

- "The Lord is near to all who call upon him."
- God's goodness and kindness is revealed in the compassion extended to all creation.

2nd Reading - Philippians 1:20c-24,27a

- Christ is magnified in our bodies, by life or by death.
- St. Paul is in conflict: death means that he will be with Christ; life means that he is able to serve Christ's people.

Gospel - Matthew 20:1-16a

- Jesus offers a parable about a landowner who is generous to the laborers who could not work a full day in his vineyard.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you experience God being generous to you: through your family, friends, school, or parish?

Question for Youth: This Gospel reminds us that God is always seeking us out and welcoming us into his generous love. Through whom has God reached out to you? Who is always encouraging you to say "yes" to God?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words how God will treat those who come to be part of the church, even those who come late.

RCIA

RCIA is a process to bring adults to full communion with the Catholic Church. Locally, RCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith affiliation, those from other faith denominations, Catholics seeking to receive Eucharist and Confirmation, and fully initiated Catholics who desire to learn more about their faith.

RCIA starts (November 16th) as soon as the ALPHA program ends. It includes prayer, Gospel/Scripture study & discussion, many theological topics, how the Church is organized, many opportunities to "learn the language", and ALWAYS time for questions. And of course, it wouldn't be Catholic if it didn't include refreshments and treats.

Superior Catholics RCIA meets on Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30. A mix of in-person, virtual, and hybrid sessions are held. This allows us to bring in speakers from around the diocese, work around inclement winter weather, and be sensitive to those who travel long distances and night-vision issues.

Please consult the parish bulletin for specific dates. Those who choose to become fully initiated Catholics are welcomed in the glorious liturgy of Easter Vigil.

For more information, contact Kathy Drinkwine at Kathy.RCIA@gmail.com or 715 394 3005.

Please leave a message for our newly elected President, Liz Gaynor, at 715-398-4039 if you are interested in learning more about how you might join us in this mission of charity.
