WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a look at some of the themes that appear in the Mass readings for the 3rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Jonah 3:1-5,10

- Jonah fulfills God's command and travels to Nineveh with a message of destruction and doom.
- The people take the message to heart, and they repent by fasting and wearing sackcloth.

Psalm – 25:4-9

- "Teach me your ways, O Lord."
- We ask the Lord to guide us in truth, as we remember God's kindness and compassion.

2nd Reading – 1st Corinthians 7:29-31

- Paul exhorts the people that the present world is passing away.
- He encourages them to detach from earthly concerns and relationships.

Gospel – Mark 1:14-20

- After the arrest of John the Baptist, Jesus continues to preach about repentance, saying that the Kingdom of God is at hand.
- Jesus then calls Peter, Andrew, James and John by name; they immediately follow the Lord.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What do you think it was like for the people in today's Gospel to be called by Jesus? What did they have to give up in order to follow him?

Question for Youth: At the start of Jesus' ministry, Jesus invites people to "believe in the Good News." What are some ways that you could be more open to the truth and challenge contained within the Gospels?

Question for Adults: If someone asked you, "To what work has Jesus called you?" how would you answer?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

YOUR IMPACT

In October, November and December, our Society had contact with over 400 households, 160 of those households were homeless. (Let that just sink in for a moment). We were able to help many with information and referral and they were able to connect with the resources they needed. We met with people in their homes on 30 occasions and visited 100 times with people in a community setting. In addition to financial assistance, we provided those individuals with an estimated value of $7500 worth of food, clothing and household goods. Of more importance we were able to listen to them with compassion and provide emotional support and practical guidance. Of even greater significance - we were able to pray with them. In serving those in need each of us is blessed to grow in love of neighbor and in closeness to our Lord.

You are invited to our next meeting on Tuesday, January 23rd at 6pm in Kress Hall. Come and see. 715-398-4039

DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2024

My Dear Friends in Christ:

As we embark on another year of academic excellence and spiritual growth, it is with great joy and anticipation that I extend my warmest greetings to you in celebration of Catholic Schools Week 2024! This year's Catholic Schools Week promises to be another extraordinary occasion, filled with inspiration, reflection, and the vibrant spirit that defines our Diocesan community. From January 28 to February 3, we invite you to join us in recognizing the unique contributions of Catholic education and the unwavering commitment to fostering the development of mind, body, and spirit. Throughout the week, our 14 Catholic Schools have planned many engaging events and activities that will showcase the exceptional talents, achievements, and faith-based initiatives of our students, educators, and the broader community.

When you look at the profile of our Catholic School Graduates some common traits come to mind: Faith in Action: graduates are more likely to be engaged and attend Mass regularly and involved in service that reflects the teachings of compassion and charity. Academic Excellence: graduates are likely to attend college and display the exceptional talents of our next generation of leaders and scholars. Community Engagement: graduates embrace a sense of ownership and engagement in their local community.

I am grateful to parents who have prayerfully decided to choose a Catholic school education for their children. This week is also an opportunity for honoring faculty and staff as we take a moment to express gratitude to the dedicated educators who shape the minds and hearts of our students. Special recognitions and activities will highlight their invaluable contributions.

We cordially invite you to be a part of this uplifting week, as we celebrate the many rich layers of Catholic education and the profound impact it has on the lives of those within our community. We are all challenged to help make schools available, accessible, and affordable to all Catholic parents and their children. The support of our Catholic Schools should not be placed exclusively on the individual parishes that have schools and on parents who pay tuition. This requires all Catholics, including those in parishes without schools, to consider their stewardship of the greater Church.

As we observe Catholic Schools Week, we continue the tradition of a special diocesan-wide collection that will provide an additional and immediate source of support for schools based on the number of students. Our response to this appeal is an expression of our discipleship and our unity with Catholic school communities throughout northern Wisconsin. It is my hope and prayer that each of us will participate in our Special Collection for Catholic Schools that will help ensure a vibrant Church.

Thank you for your continued support of Catholic education. Together, let us rejoice in the blessings of Catholic Schools Week 2024 and the enduring legacy of faith, knowledge, and community.

Gratefully yours in the Lord

In “The Eucharist in Scripture”, discover God’s plan as it is expressed through the Bible and the Mass. The six episodes, presented by Dr. Scott Hahn, will unlock the meaning of covenant, sacrifice, and sacrament as understood in the Bible, from Genesis through Revelation.

Built around three of Dr. Hahn’s foundational talks: “The Lamb’s Supper,” “The Fourth Cup,” and “Consuming the Word,” The Eucharist in Scripture examines the biblical foundations of the Eucharist and explores the Church’s liturgy as the original context for the books of the Bible.

As part of the Knight’s “Faith in Action” program, the councils of District 91 are sponsoring this Lenten Retreat to all in the Diocese of Superior and beyond.

All are Welcome!
