Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

- Jn 12:23-24

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that emerge in the Mass readings for the 5th Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading - Jeremiah 31:31-34

- The Lord will make a new covenant with the house of Israel.
- The covenant will be written on their hearts, and God will forgive their sins.

Psalms - 51:3-4, 12-15

- "Create a clean heart in me, O God."
- The Lord mercifully renews our spirit, gives us joy, and leads us back to God.

2nd Reading - Hebrews 5:7-9

- During his earthly life, Jesus offered prayers and supplications to God.
- Christ learned obedience through his suffering and became the source of our eternal salvation.

Gospel - John 12:20-33

- Like the grain of wheat that falls to the ground and dies in order to bear much fruit, so also a disciple of Christ must lose his life in this world in order to preserve it for eternal life.
- When the Lord was lifted up from the earth, he drew all people to himself...indicating his death on the Cross.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Name one thing you can do or stop doing that will help you have a better friendship with Jesus.

Question for Youth: Sometimes one thing needs to die in order for something new to be born. When have you experienced this in your own life? What do you need to let go of now for something new to grow?

Question for Adults: Name one area in your life that you need to let go of, to die to, in order to rise with new life.
