Thank you for filling out a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those of you who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. There are many challenges that challenge us today, the shortage of priests is one such challenge, the responsibility our parish has to provide help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocat5ions and the education seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

Please consider a pledge of any amount “no amount is too large or too small”.

Eucharistic Adoration in our cluster:
 Cathedral – every Thursday from 1-3pm
 St. Anthony, L.N – every Thursday from 9-10am
 St. William – 1st Saturday from 5:30-6pm

Thursday Morning Bible Study and Rosary All are welcome to join in discussion on the upcoming Sunday readings. The group meets every Thursday at 9:30 to pray the rosary and 10 AM for Bible study in the Angel Room! See Tammy B. for more Information.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes in the Mass readings on the 4th Sunday of Easter.

1st Reading - Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12

- Peter addresses the people, stating that the healing miracle they have seen was done in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Raised from the dead, it is in his name that we have salvation.

Psalm - 118:1,8-9,21-23,26,28-29

- "The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone."
- This is the psalm that Peter quotes in the speech we just heard in Acts, proclaiming Jesus as the fulfillment of salvation history.

2nd Reading - 1st Letter of John 3:1-2

- Calling us "children of God," we perceive the love which the Almighty has bestowed upon us.
- What we will become is not known now, but when it is revealed, we will be like him and see him as he is.

Gospel - John 10:11-18

- Jesus claims that he is the "good shepherd" who knows, leads, defends, and lays down his life for the sheep.
- The Father has given Christ the power and command to lay down his life for the flock.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us he is the Good Shepherd, but how do you experience God guiding and protecting you?

Question for Youth: How do you feel about Jesus' being your shepherd? What does it mean to you that he lays down his life for you?

Question for Adults: What qualities of God does the image of the Good Shepherd suggest? How do you experience God in this way?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Mid-Year Report

Our fiscal year begins on October 1st. In the past six months we have helped nearly 800 households with information and referral, goods, and/or financial assistance. (727 for the same period last year). Of these households over 300 were homeless (last year 206), which is a significant increase. Last year, we met with people half of the time in conference calls and the remaining half face to face - in a similar number of contacts. In this current six-month period, our volunteers have visited people in their homes in a team of two 75 times and in the community 200 times. (in part due to the fact that many are experiencing homelessness). We are grateful for the dedicated efforts of our volunteers who transcribe calls, speak to people on the phone, and those who meet with people.

If you are interested in learning more about how you can get involved in this mission of charity, please contact us. If you or someone you know is in need of assistance with housing needs, utilities, transportation, clothing, or household goods, or other basic needs - leave a message for us at 715-398-4039.
