Fourth Sunday of Easter

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day." - Lk 24:45-46

ST. WILLIAM PASTY SALE

Pasties are available to purchase after Mass. They are $5 each.

The stone rejected by the builders has become the corner-stone

- Psalm 118

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes in the Mass readings on the 4th Sunday of Easter.

1st Reading - Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12

- Peter addresses the people, stating that the healing miracle they have seen was done in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Raised from the dead, it is in his name that we have salvation.

Psalm - 118:1,8-9,21-23,26,28-29

- "The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone."
- This is the psalm that Peter quotes in the speech we just heard in Acts, proclaiming Jesus as the fulfillment of salvation history.

2nd Reading - 1st Letter of John 3:1-2

- Calling us "children of God," we perceive the love which the Almighty has bestowed upon us.
- What we will become is not known now, but when it is revealed, we will be like him and see him as he is.

Gospel - John 10:11-18

- Jesus claims that he is the "good shepherd" who knows, leads, defends, and lays down his life for the sheep.
- The Father has given Christ the power and command to lay down his life for the flock.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us he is the Good Shepherd, but how do you experience God guiding and protecting you?

Question for Youth: How do you feel about Jesus' being your shepherd? What does it mean to you that he lays down his life for you?

Question for Adults: What qualities of God does the image of the Good Shepherd suggest? How do you experience God in this way?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Mid-Year Report

Our fiscal year begins on October 1st. In the past six months we have helped nearly 800 households with information and referral, goods, and/or financial assistance. (727 for the same period last year). Of these households over 300 were homeless (last year 206), which is a significant increase. Last year, we met with people half of the time in conference calls and the remaining half face to face - in a similar number of contacts. In this current six-month period, our volunteers have visited people in their homes in a team of two 75 times and in the community 200 times. (in part due to the fact that many are experiencing homelessness). We are grateful for the dedicated efforts of our volunteers who transcribe calls, speak to people on the phone, and those who meet with people.

If you are interested in learning more about how you can get involved in this mission of charity, please contact us.

If you or someone you know is in need of assistance with housing needs, utilities, transportation, clothing, or household goods, or other basic needs - leave a message for us at 715-398-4039.
