WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 12th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Job 18:1,8-11

- From the storm God addresses Job, reminding him that it was the Lord's might that set the limits and boundaries of all creation.

Psalm - 107:23-26,28-31

- "Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting."
- In the midst of the power and might of nature, the people call upon the Lord and give him glory and praise.

2nd Reading - 2nd Corinthians 5:14-17

- Impelled by the love of Christ, we no longer live for ourselves but for the one who died and rose for us.
- Those who are in Christ are now a new creation, and they no longer live according to the flesh.

Gospel - Mark 4:35-41

- Jesus is with the disciples in a boat when a violent storm comes upon them.
- Upon awakening, the Lord calms the storm with a word and chastises the disciples for their lack of faith.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus makes the wind and the sea peaceful. How would you have felt if you were with Jesus and the disciples during the storm?

Question for Youth: Jesus is capable of great things, even calming storms. What is one thing that you wish he would calm in your own life?

Question for Adults: When and where have you been awed by God's action?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

A PERFECT STORM

Shelters full, Grandma's marathon weekend with no affordable motels, no government rental assistance unless you have children, utility companies disconnecting, and some area charities unfortunately unable to assist at this time.....

And lots of rain for those trying to live in tents.

Our Society has been working with 100 households in some manner in the first two weeks of June. As members of Christ's body - our volunteers work tirelessly to try to calm the storm in the lives of people in our community. If you are feeling called to help us, we can find a place for you whether you are able to commit a few hours a year or a few hours a week.
