Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep."

- Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

Fr. Antoni is available to hear confessions at 5:30 pm before Mass each Saturday he is at St. William.

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. -Psalm 30

ST. WILLIAM CATHOLIC SERVICE APPEAL

Payments and Pledges	3,160.00
Remaining to Raise	2,560.00

There is still time to donate the Catholic Service Appeal this to make this year's goal.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes that surface in the Mass readings for the 13th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

- God did not make death, nor does the Lord rejoice in the destruction of the living.
- God formed humanity to be imperishable, but by the envy of the devil death entered the world.

Psalm - 30:2,4-6,22-24

- "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me."
- We give thanks to God who has had pity on us and preserved us from death.

2nd Reading - 2nd Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

- For our sake Jesus became poor, so that by his poverty we might become rich.
- Mindful of what the Lord has done for us, we supply the needs of those who are burdened.

Gospel - Mark 5:21-43

- While Jesus is on the way to heal a child, a woman touches his cloak and is healed.
- Upon arriving at the child's home and told that she has died, Jesus approaches, takes the child by the hand, and with a word restores her to life.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What does sharing with others bring happiness to you?

Question for Youth: What are some of the miraculous moments in your own life? Do you ever pray for miracles?

Question for Adults: What is your personal response to St. Paul's instruction to the Corinthians today? How will this change your personal habits with money and possessions?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

As it is written:

Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less. 2: Cor. 8:13-15

We receive much more from those we serve than those we serve receive from us.
