Our eyes are fixed on the Lord,
pleading for his mercy. -Psalm 12

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 14th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Ezekiel 2:2-5

- The prophet is sent by God to speak to a people who are stubborn and obstinate of heart.
- Ezekiel must speak faithfully, so that whether they heed or resist, they will know that a prophet has been among them.

Psalm - 123:1-4

- "Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy."
- We call upon the Lord to have pity on us when we have been mocked or held in contempt by the world.

2nd Reading - 2nd Corinthians 12:7-10

- That he might not become too elated, Paul is given a "thorn in the flesh."
- Recognizing his weaknesses, Paul discovers that with the power of Christ he becomes strong.

Gospel - Mark 6:1-6

- Jesus arrives at his native place and the people take offense at him.
- Because of their lack of faith, the Lord does not perform any mighty deeds there.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What helps you have deeper faith in Jesus?

Question for Youth: When have you struggled to speak the truth among your friends? What makes this difficult? What are the consequences?

Question for Adults: Name a time when you placed your trust in God even though those around you did not believe.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Encountering Christ

When we reach out to those in need, we see the suffering Christ. Like Veronica, we wipe the face - providing a bit of comfort and compassion, often knowing that our help will not end the suffering to come. We invite those we encounter to join us in prayer for their needs, as we know we have a Father who loves each of us unconditionally.
