WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes that surface in the Mass Readings for the 21st Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Joshua 24:1-2a,15-17,18b

- Joshua gathers the people at Shechem and tells them to choose who they will follow.
- The people recall God's mighty deeds and declare that they will serve the Lord.

Psalm – 34:2-3,16-21

- "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."
- The Lord hears and rescues the brokenhearted when they cry out for help.

2nd Reading – Ephesians 5:21-32

- Husbands and wives are called to be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ.
- As husbands and wives serve and sacrifice, they mirror the mystery of Christ and the church.

Gospel – John 6:60-69

- After hearing the "bread of life" discourse, many of the disciples of Jesus left him saying, "This teaching is hard; who can accept it?"
- Jesus asks the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"
- Peter responds, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Fr. Andrew

Question for Youth: Who do you know who really struggles with believing? What can you do to help them struggle through doubt?

Question for Adults: To whom do you go when you are looking for meaning or answers to life's questions?

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU

We can't begin to express our gratitude to all the parishioners that donated their time, talent, and treasure to make St. Anthony Lake Nebagamon annual Pork Dinner a huge success. From the planning meetings, the donations of groceries and money, providing grills and gas cookers, advertising, to the 3 days of extensive preparation, people stepped up. Then to the actual event of cooking and baking, parking, selling tickets, serving, maintaining the serving line and table service, desserts and beverages, kids' meals and takeout, bussing, washing dishes, and cleaning up the hall at the end, people came and worked very hard. It takes a village to accomplish this great event. And of course, thank you to the people that came, ate, and participated in networking in our community. God Bless our "Village" of parishioners and friends.

Again, thank you for the gifts of the Holy Spirit that you shared.
