WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 24th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 50:5-9a

- The prophet endures physical abuse from others who reject his message.
- God gives him strength and help; he is not disgraced and will not give up.

Psalm – 116:1-6,8-9

- “I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.”
- In our moments of distress and sorrow, we call upon the Lord who frees us from death.

2nd Reading – James 2:14-18

- It is not enough to wish people well; we must do our part to care for them.
- We demonstrate our faith in God by our works of charity for others.

Gospel – Mark 8:27-35

- When asked by Jesus at Caesarea Philippi about his identity, Peter acknowledges that Jesus is the Christ.
- After the Lord speaks about his passion and death on the cross, he chastises Peter for thinking “not as God does, but as human beings do.”

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What do think it means for you to follow in Jesus’ footsteps?

Question for Youth: Who do you say that Jesus is? Who is Jesus in your life?

Question for Adults: What is the cross that you carry today? How do you follow Jesus in the workplace and at home?

SALN UPDATES

Have you noticed the music in our parish is just a little sweeter? That is because we have a new piano, replacing our faithful, ailing keyboard. This was made possible by dedicated funding from our previous Capital Campaign in building our new church. Kim Reed has been hard at work mastering our new instrument.

You also have noticed our magnificent new Sanctuary Lamp. A generous anonymous donor provided the resources to add to the sacredness of our altar.

Thank you to all who selflessly give to make our church a place of beauty and worship.
