WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that appear in the Mass readings for the 26th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Numbers 11:25-29

- The Lord bestows the spirit of Moses on seventy elders who become prophets.
- Moses chastises Joshua after he tries to stop two others who (while away from the seventy) were also filled with the spirit of God.

Psalm – 19:8,10,12-14

- “The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.”
- The decrees and laws of the Lord are perfect, and they give wisdom and guidance.

2nd Reading – James 5:1-6

- James offers a stern warning for the rich to weep and wail over their impending miseries.
- He lists their offenses against the poor and righteous.

Gospel – Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48

- The Lord chastises John who tries to stop someone (not from their group) who is driving out demons in the name of Jesus.
- Jesus then offers a stern warning to avoid sin so as to avoid Gehenna.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: In what specific ways do you share with the poor, from what you have been given?

Question for Youth: Who are the people you have met who are against you? Are there people who persecute you because of your faith? How do you treat these people?

Question for Adults: In today's worldwide community, who are the rich and what does God want of them?

PASTORAL CARE

Homebound Ministers Needed

One of the most rewarding ministries in the Catholic faith is that of serving those who are no longer able to leave their home or the facility in which they now reside. For most, this is a time of struggle – failing health, loss of independence and control, loneliness, and so often, a new, unfamiliar environment. The Church needs to stay connected with these people. Can you see yourself in this role?

Volunteers are being sought from all parishes. This includes those who would like to commit to a regular schedule and those who would be willing to fill in as needed. Training and ongoing guidance will be provided. Curious? Questions? Would you like to know more?

An information session will be held on Sunday, October 13th at noon in Kress Hall at Cathedral of Christ the King.

Join us to learn more about this heartfelt and essential ministry. Please let us know that you be attending by calling the Cathedral office at 715 392 8511 or Kathy Drinkwine at 715 718 1334.

RCIA

Follow Me

Two very simple words, yet so powerful that they formed the foundation of Christian discipleship. We know that Jesus spoke these words to his twelve chosen apostles. . .and he continues to speak these words to us.

Those two words can be heard in many ways. It can be a sense of being pulled somewhere or an emptiness longing to be filled. It can be wanting something greater - a need to find a true home. It can be a desire to know and embrace more.

RCIA is the process to bring adults to full communion with the Catholic Church. Locally, RCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith affiliation, those from other faith denominations, Catholics seeking to receive Eucharist and Confirmation, and fully initiated Catholics who desire to learn more about their faith. Those who choose to become fully initiated Catholics are welcomed in the glorious liturgy of Easter Vigil.

RCIA begins Thursday, November 14th. It includes prayer, Gospel/Scripture study & discussion, many theological topics, how the Church is organized, many opportunities to "learn the language", and ALWAYS time for questions. And of course, it wouldn't be Catholic if it didn't include refreshments and treats.

Superior Catholics RCIA meets on Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30, in Cathedral Kress Hall. Though sessions are planned as in-person events, they can be switched to virtual to work around inclement winter weather.

For more information, contact Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or 715 718 1334.

NOTE: Interested individuals are strongly encouraged to participate in the ALPHA course as a lead-in to RCIA.
