Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

- Psalm 116

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 24th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Isaiah 50:5-9a

- The prophet endures physical abuse from others who reject his message.
- God gives him strength and help; he is not disgraced and will not give up.

Psalm - 116:1-6,8-9

- "I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living."
- In our moments of distress and sorrow, we call upon the Lord who frees us from death.

2nd Reading - James 2:14-18

- It is not enough to wish people well; we must do our part to care for them.
- We demonstrate our faith in God by our works of charity for others.

Gospel - Mark 8:27-35

- When asked by Jesus at Caesarea Philippi about his identity, Peter acknowledges that Jesus is the Christ.
- After the Lord speaks about his passion and death on the cross, he chastises Peter for thinking "not as God does, but as human beings do."

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What do think it means for you to follow in Jesus footsteps?

Question for Youth: Who do you say that Jesus is? Who is Jesus in your life?

Question for Adults: What is the cross that you carry today? How do you follow Jesus in the workplace and at home?
