STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

The phrase in today's Psalm, "May you see your children's children," is really a prayer for a long life. The good steward knows that every day is a gift from God, to be lived with joy and thanksgiving. "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives!"

2024/2025 - Catholic Services Appeal

Thank you for filling out a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave Church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. We have raised $11,410 toward our Catholic Services Appeal goal. There are many challenges that face us today, the shortage of priests is one such challenge, the responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 27th Week of the Year.

1st Reading - Genesis 2:18-24

- God creates all the wild animals and brings them to the man, but none proves to be a suitable partner.
- God then builds up a woman from the rib that he has taken from the man, who recognizes her as his partner for life.

Psalm - 128:1-6

- "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."
- God blesses us through our family and faithful adherence to the Lord's commands.

2nd Reading - Hebrews 2:9-11

- Jesus becomes "lower than the angels" to taste death for our salvation.
- Through his gracious sacrifice, we are welcomed into God's family of faith.

Gospel - Mark 10:2-16

- Jesus responds to questions about divorce, and he speaks about the sanctity of marriage.
- The Lord then welcomes the children to come to him, and he blesses and embraces them.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When you make a promise, why is it important to keep it?

Question for Youth: What has your family taught you about God and living a faithful life? How do you show your family what they mean to you?

Question for Adults: How is God's fidelity reflected in human marriage? To whom are you committed like this?

PASTORAL CARE

Homebound Ministers Needed

One of the most rewarding ministries in the Catholic faith is that of serving those who are no longer able to leave their home or the facility in which they now reside. For most, this is a time of struggle – failing health, loss of independence and control, loneliness, and so often, a new, unfamiliar environment. The Church needs to stay connected with these people. Can you see yourself in this role?

Volunteers are being sought from all parishes. This includes those who would like to commit to a regular schedule and those who would be willing to fill in as needed. Training and ongoing guidance will be provided. Curious? Questions? Would you like to know more?

An information session will be held on Sunday, October 13 at noon in Kress Hall at Cathedral of Christ the King.

Join us to learn more about this heartfelt and essential ministry. Please let us know that you will be attending by calling the Cathedral office at 715 392 8511 or Kathy Drinkwine at 715 718 1334.

RCIA

Follow Me

Two very simple words, yet so powerful that they formed the foundation of Christian discipleship. We know that Jesus spoke these words to his twelve chosen apostles. . .and he continues to speak these words to us.

Those two words can be heard in many ways. It can be a sense of being pulled somewhere or an emptiness longing to be filled. It can be wanting something greater - a need to find a true home. It can be a desire to know and embrace more.

RCIA is the process to bring adults to full communion with the Catholic Church. Locally, RCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith affiliation, those from other faith denominations, Catholics seeking to receive Eucharist and Confirmation, and fully initiated Catholics who desire to learn more about their faith. Those who choose to become fully initiated Catholics are welcomed in the glorious liturgy of Easter Vigil.

RCIA begins Thursday, November 14. It includes prayer, Gospel/Scripture study & discussion, many theological topics, how the Church is organized, many opportunities to "learn the language", and ALWAYS time for questions. And of course, it wouldn't be Catholic if it didn't include refreshments and treats.

Superior Catholics RCIA meets on Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30. Though sessions are planned as in-person events, they can be switched to virtual to work around inclement winter weather.

For more information, contact Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or 715 718 1334.

NOTE: Interested individuals are strongly encouraged to participate in the ALPHA course as a lead-in to RCIA.

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

STAND BEFORE JESUS

Imagine standing in front of Jesus. He looks at you with love and asks, "what do you want me to do for you?" How would you respond? What do you truly want from the Lord?

As we read the Sunday gospels this month, pay attention to the way Jesus responds to each person. He hears what they want and gives them what they need - guidance, humility, healing, understanding.

When we pray, we stand before the Lord who looks at us with love. Entering into a time of prayer knowing that God is there, loving us in that moment and in every moment, we can risk being honest with God and with ourselves. In prayer, we bring our desires to God, and in doing so, we reveal to ourselves how aligned we are with God and God's ways. We may come with something that troubles us or a situation that we hope will change. We may come asking for something - trivial or life-altering, and we listen, opening our heart and mind to find what we need.

WITH AN OPEN HEART

At the end of the month, we hear the account of a scribe who approached Jesus, asking which is the first of all the commandments. While other Jewish leaders tried to trick Jesus with questions, this scribe came with a true desire for understanding. The dialogue between Jesus and the scribe (Mk 12:28b-34) is truly remarkable. In his response to the scribe, Jesus wove together the essential elements of Jewish teaching: God is one. Love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength. Love your neighbor as yourself. The scribe grasped Jesus' response as divine wisdom and Jesus recognized the scribe's understanding, saying, "you are not far from the kingdom of God."

This is what it is like to be in communion with Christ, to be in perfect alignment with God and God's ways. The scribe had not only studied sacred scripture, assenting to the faith with his mind, he had opened his heart to its true meaning and was of one heart with the Lord.

IT'S POSSIBLE

It may seem that only the saints live so close to the kingdom of God. Yet we are all called to be saints, to grow in holiness so that we are of one heart with the Lord.

On our own, we stumble over the obstacles that block the path of faithfulness. We want to follow Jesus but, like the man with many possessions, we may walk away when discipleship calls us to leave our former selves behind.

We do not do this alone. We rely on the inspiration and strength of the Holy Spirit, the presence of Christ in the nourishment of the Eucharist, and the forgiveness, peace, and restoration found in the sacrament of penance. With God, it is possible to find salvation, perfect communion with Christ and one another, the joy of discipleship.

Jesus looks at you with love and asks, "what do you want me to do for you?" Take a moment now to return Jesus' gaze. Open your heart to him. All things are possible for God.

For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

Are you weighed down? Let it go. Be free.

"Children, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

Anyone who has moved from a long-time home can likely relate to the man whose story we hear in the gospel on October 13. We seem to acquire material possessions without thinking. Then we prepare to move, and find all that stuff we have not used in years (or ever). We face a decision: will we pack the stuff and move it with us, knowing it may never come out of the box, or will we give it away, knowing someone else may truly need it, and feel free in the giving?

Jesus looked on the man with love, told him to give what he had to the poor, and then to follow him. Jesus knew that in letting go, the man would be set free. The man went away sad. He was weighed down by his many possessions. Many of us, like the man in today's gospel, are burdened by the pursuit of worldly things. Much of our days and weeks is spent trying to get ahead, to have all the things we want, thinking that in the things, we will find security and freedom. Jesus uses the outlandish image of a camel passing through the eye of the needle to illustrate how burdened we may become.

In the kingdom of heaven, no one is weighed down. No one is poor. All are free to live as God's children. All know, find meaning and security in, and share God's love.

As people committed to grow as good stewards, we learn to trust in God, seeking purpose in his will. We grow closer to the Lord, leading us to desire what God desires. As stewards, we learn to more prudently discern the way we spend our time and money. Less weighed down by possessions or the striving for them, we are free to accept the kingdom of God like a child and live as Christ's own in the world.

Learn from the camel – don't be weighed down!

Are you burdened by financial concerns, physical difficulties, mental or emotional illness? When things are hard, remember that Christ looks on you with love and is ready to set you free.

What weighs you down? As Jesus looks into your life and heart with love, what does he see? Is much of your time focused on the things you want or on gaining financial wealth? Do you find yourself eying the possessions of a friend or neighbor with envy? Do you find yourself consumed by a Pinterest image or someone else's seemingly perfect Instagram account?

Learn from the man in the gospel. Are you weighed down? Don't be possessed by your possessions. Let go of all that stands between you and the life Jesus desires for you. Be free.

Impact this month

Pause regularly for prayer this month. Quiet your mind and heart and pause for a few moments of silent contemplation. Use Mark 12:28-31 or another passage of Scripture as you place your life in God's hands, trusting that God will be with you as you strive to discern and do God's will.

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

ABOUT

Extreme Faith Camp is a Catholic week-long summer camp for middle school students. It is open to those who have completed 6th - 8th grade by the summer of 2025. ## “EXTREME?”

Christ doesn't call his disciples to mediocrity or to lukewarmness. Rather, He calls us to be radically transformed. Extreme Faith Camp provides a jumpstart for young Catholics to rev their faith up and help them realize that God wants an intimate, life-changing relationship with them. The mission of Extreme Faith Camp is to light a fire in young people that they can take back to their families, parishes and schools, helping to ignite youth ministry around the diocese.
