WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 27th Week of the Year.

1st Reading - Genesis 2:18-24

- God creates all the wild animals and brings them to the man, but none proves to be a suitable partner.
- God then builds up a woman from the rib that he has taken from the man, who recognizes her as his partner for life.

Psalm - 128:1-6

- "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."
- God blesses us through our family and faithful adherence to the Lord's commands.

2nd Reading - Hebrews 2:9-11

- Jesus becomes "lower than the angels" to taste death for our salvation.
- Through his gracious sacrifice, we are welcomed into God's family of faith.

Gospel - Mark 10:2-16

- Jesus responds to questions about divorce, and he speaks about the sanctity of marriage.
- The Lord then welcomes the children to come to him, and he blesses and embraces them.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When you make a promise, why is it important to keep it?

Question for Youth: What has your family taught you about God and living a faithful life? How do you show your family what they mean to you?

Question for Adults: How is God's fidelity reflected in human marriage? To whom are you committed like this?

PASTORAL CARE

Homebound Ministers Needed

One of the most rewarding ministries in the Catholic faith is that of serving those who are no longer able to leave their home or the facility in which they now reside. For most, this is a time of struggle – failing health, loss of independence and control, loneliness, and so often, a new, unfamiliar environment. The Church needs to stay connected with these people. Can you see yourself in this role?

Volunteers are being sought from all parishes. This includes those who would like to commit to a regular schedule and those who would be willing to fill in as needed. Training and ongoing guidance will be provided. Curious? Questions? Would you like to know more?

An information session will be held on Sunday, October 13 at noon in Kress Hall at Cathedral of Christ the King.

Join us to learn more about this heartfelt and essential ministry. Please let us know that you will be attending by calling the Cathedral office at 715 392 8511 or Kathy Drinkwine at 715 718 1334.

RCIA

Follow Me

Two very simple words, yet so powerful that they formed the foundation of Christian discipleship. We know that Jesus spoke these words to his twelve chosen apostles. . .and he continues to speak these words to us.

Those two words can be heard in many ways. It can be a sense of being pulled somewhere or an emptiness longing to be filled. It can be wanting something greater - a need to find a true home. It can be a desire to know and embrace more.

RCIA is the process to bring adults to full communion with the Catholic Church. Locally, RCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith affiliation, those from other faith denominations, Catholics seeking to receive Eucharist and Confirmation, and fully initiated Catholics who desire to learn more about their faith. Those who choose to become fully initiated Catholics are welcomed in the glorious liturgy of Easter Vigil.

RCIA begins Thursday, November 14. It includes prayer, Gospel/Scripture study & discussion, many theological topics, how the Church is organized, many opportunities to "learn the language", and ALWAYS time for questions. And of course, it wouldn't be Catholic if it didn't include refreshments and treats.

Superior Catholics RCIA meets on Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30, in Cathedral Kress Hall. Though sessions are planned as in-person events, they can be switched to virtual to work around inclement winter weather.

For more information, contact Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or 715 718 1334.

NOTE: Interested individuals are strongly encouraged to participate in the ALPHA course as a lead-in to RCIA.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

40 Days for Life

Let us walk with moms and their babies during the fall 40 Days for Life Campaign. With our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, our Lady's intercession and the 40 Days for Life Prayer Warriors, perhaps we can turn the tide and prevent further loss of LIFE in the womb. Let us walk with mom's who need our prayers and support by Peacefully Praying at the abortion center on 1st St. This is a prayer vigil, not a protest or sidewalk counseling.

The 40 Days for Life Prayerful Vigil Campaign is September 25 - November 3, 2024, from 7:00am-7:00pm. This prayer campaign can't be done without your help so please join us. The web site, 40daysforlife.com/en/duluth, is up and running.

Contact Kathy Cory-Whitmyer at 218-390-8560 or 40daysduluth@gmail.com if you'd like more information.

Calling All Women!

Welcome to the Superior Catholic Women's Group beginning October 21st and every third Monday of the month until May 19th. From 6:30-8pm women are invited to St. Williams Church for food, fellowship, lessons in faith, and prayer. The book Dwell, Blessed Conversations Study on the Eucharist, will be used as this year's guided study. A copy, while very useful for personal reflection before, during and after each meeting, is not a requirement, nor is attendance to each meeting. Group leaders will be guiding faith lessons and discussions using the book. If you are seeking companionship among women and to know more about Jesus come check us out!
