HOLY ASSUMPTION SNOW BRIGADE

Here's the deal. As our parish situation changes, we no longer have a custodian to work weekends and shovel our steps and sidewalks when it snows. Should we have a large amount of snow, we will hire a snow removal company to clear everything. However, if we have just a couple inches of snow, it's cost prohibitive to pay a contractor to come out. So, we find ourselves in need of volunteers. Shovels will be provided to the hardy souls who arrive around 8:30 am on Sunday mornings to pitch in to clean up the snow. We know that many "hands make light work" and Deacon Bob says, "The wages aren't much but the benefits are out of this world."

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for Feast of the Holy Family.

1st Reading - Sirach 3:2-7,12-14

- God sets a father and mother in authority and honor over their children.
- Children revere and care for their parents when they are old, and this kindness will not be forgotten by God.

Psalm - 128:1-5

- "Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways."
- Those who follow the Lord will find blessings in family life.

2nd Reading - Colossians 3:12-21

- As God's chosen ones, we are called to live virtuously with love and peace in the name of Jesus Christ.
- This calling is expressed in a concrete way in the relationships that exist in family life.

Gospel - Luke 2:41-52

- Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the temple after searching for him for three days.
- As Jesus grew in obedience, wisdom and favor, Mary kept all these things in her heart.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Why is it important to obey our parents? Why is it important to obey God?

Question for Youth: Jesus was obedient to his parents, even though he was the Son of God. Why is obedience so important? Is it something you struggle with?

Question for Adults: How are you, too, called to our Father's house?
