WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's review some of the themes that we find in the Mass Readings for the 2nd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 62:1-5

- The prophet proclaims that Jerusalem will be vindicated and glorified.
- The nations will see how God rejoices in the people who were formerly forsaken.

Psalm – 96:1-3,7-10

- "Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations."
- We sing to the Lord, announcing his salvation and giving glory to God.

2nd Reading – 1st Corinthians 12:4-11

- There are different gifts, service, and types of work, but it is the same Spirit and Lord who produces them.
- To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some particular benefit.

Gospel – John 2:1-11

- Jesus is at a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and when the wine runs out the Lord performs a miracle and turns water into wine.
- This is not a normal wine; it is tested by the headwaiter who declares it is the best.

Fr. Andrew

DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we embark on another year of academic excellence and spiritual growth, it is with immense joy and anticipation that I invite you to join us in celebrating Catholic Schools Week 2025, from January 26th to February 1st. This special week is a time to recognize the unique contributions of our Catholic schools and the unwavering commitment of our dedicated educators, students, and families. It is an opportunity to reflect on the profound impact of Catholic education in fostering the development of mind, body, and spirit within our Diocesan community.

Throughout the week, our 14 Catholic schools will host a variety of engaging events and activities showcasing the exceptional talents, achievements, and faith-based initiatives of our students. These events will provide a glimpse into the vibrant learning environments within our schools and the strong sense of community that defines them.

The impact of Catholic school education is undeniable. Our graduates consistently demonstrate:

A Deepened Faith: They actively live out their faith through regular Mass attendance and a commitment to service that reflects the values of compassion and charity.

Exceptional Academics: They possess the intellectual curiosity and skills to excel in their studies and become the next generation of leaders and innovators.

A Strong Sense of Community: They are active participants in their communities, demonstrating a commitment to civic engagement and social responsibility.

This week is also an opportunity to express our deep gratitude to the dedicated faculty and staff who pour their hearts and souls into educating our children. Their tireless efforts and unwavering commitment to nurturing the intellectual, spiritual, and emotional growth of our students are truly invaluable. We believe that a Catholic education should be accessible to all families who desire it. To this end, we encourage the support of all Catholics, including those in parishes without schools, to consider their stewardship of the greater Church. We all have a role to play in ensuring the continued success of our Catholic schools.

As part of Catholic Schools Week, we will be conducting a special diocesan-wide collection. The proceeds from this collection will provide vital support to our schools, ensuring that they can continue to provide a high-quality education to our children. Your generous contribution is a tangible expression of your faith and your commitment to the future of our Church.

Thank you for your continued support of our Catholic schools. Together, let us celebrate the blessings of Catholic Schools Week 2025 and the enduring legacy of faith, knowledge, and community.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Most Rev. James P. Powers
Bishop of Superior
