WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes in the Mass readings for the 4th Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading – Joshua 5:9a,10-12

- On the plains of Jericho, the people celebrated the Passover and ate the fruit of the land, and on that same day the manna ceased.

Psalm – 34:2-7

- "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."
- We praise and bless the Lord, who delivers us from all our fears and saves us.

2nd Reading – 2nd Corinthians 5:17-21

- God has reconciled us to himself in Christ, and we are now a new creation.
- Paul then exhorts us to always be reconciled to God.

Gospel – Luke 15:1-3,11-32

- A younger son demands his inheritance and departs from his father and older brother where he squanders his money.
- The younger son repents and returns to his father, who welcomes him with compassion and joy.
- When the older son hears of this, he refuses to celebrate, and the father gently comes to him to teach a lesson about reconciliation.

ALMSGIVING

In almsgiving, one gives something to someone from whom one does not expect to receive anything in return. Gratuitousness should be one of the characteristics of the Christian, who aware of having received everything from God without any merit of his own, learns to give to others freely. Almsgiving helps us to experience giving freely, which leads to freedom from the obsession of possessing, from the fear of losing what we have, from the sadness of one who does not wish to share his wealth with others. - Pope Francis
