WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 2nd Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading - Genesis 15:5-12,17-18

- God promises Abram that his descendants will be as numerous as the stars in the sky.
- God enters into a covenant with Abram and promises to give his descendants land from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Psalms - 27:1,7-9,13-14

- "The Lord is my light and my salvation."
- With the Lord as our refuge, we have courage to face our fears.

2nd Reading - Philippians 3:17-4:1

- Paul exhorts the people to imitate his example in following the cross of Christ.
- Our citizenship is in heaven, and from there we await the savior who will change our lowly body to conform to his glorified body.

Gospel - Luke 9:28b-36

- Jesus takes Peter, John, and James up a mountain where he is transfigured in glory.
- Christ is speaking with Moses and Elijah, and they are discussing the "exodus" that he will accomplish in Jerusalem.
- The Father's voice speaks from a cloud, saying, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him."

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus invites you to be close to him, to see him with clear eyes. What is Jesus like as a friend?

Question for Youth: What do you most want God to help you with?

Question for Adults: Sometimes we can see Christ with clear eyes, as the disciples did on that mountain. Share about such a time in your own life.

WORKS OF MERCY

The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy.... The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead. Among all these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God. - Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Consider works of mercy this Lent.
