WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 3rd Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading - Exodus 3:1-8a,13-15

- While tending flocks near Mount Horeb, Moses encounters God in the burning bush.
- The Lord has heard the cry of the people enslaved in Egypt and will lead them to a land flowing with milk and honey.
- God tells Moses that when he goes to the Israelites, he will tell them, "I AM sent me to you...the Lord, the God of your Fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

Psalms - 103: 1-4,6-8,11

- "The Lord is kind and merciful."
- Merciful and gracious, the Lord pardons, heals, redeems, and guides the children of Israel.

2nd Reading - 1st Corinthians 10:1-6,10-12

- Paul reminds the people that many Israelites displeased God during the Exodus.
- The example of the Israelites serves as a warning to neither grumble nor desire evil things.

Gospel - Luke 13:1-9

- Citing a couple of recent tragedies, Christ reminds the people to repent of their sins lest they perish.
- Jesus then speaks about a parable of an unfruitful fig tree, revealing both the mercy and judgment of God.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Youth: What needs changing in your life right now? How will you invite God into that change?

Question for Adults: What steps are you taking this Lent to make sure that your faith bears fruit in good works?

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

The 2024/25 Catholic Services Appeal is underway in our parishes. The Appeal is an opportunity for us, as a faith family, to join together to do the work of the Lord. All families are encouraged to support the Catholic Services Appeal. By giving to the Catholic Services Appeal, you are answering God's call to discipleship to put the work of God before your own needs. The Church serves each of us in some way and our financial support is needed to continue God's work in our area. In addition, every dollar contributed to the Appeal assists our parish in offsetting our yearly fair share of diocesan financial responsibility to our Diocesan Church.

DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

March 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we journey through the sacred season of Lent, a divine gift that prepares our hearts for the glorious resurrection of Jesus, it is truly inspiring to witness the transformative work of the Lord within us and through us as we approach Easter. In the Diocese of Superior, many faithful followers of Christ are contemplating contributing to the World Concern Collection (International Priests Collection for many) on the fourth weekend of Lent, March 30, 2025. Your gifts and fervent prayers will play a pivotal role in extending crucial relief services wherever they are most needed across the globe.

For those blessed with the service and guidance of one of the more than 25 International Priests in their parish community, all proceeds from the collection will be forwarded to the respective home diocese of these priests. This is a great opportunity to express our appreciation for their missionary service and to support their ongoing work.

The Collection to Aid the Catholic Church in Eastern Europe, endorsed by the U.S. Bishops as a vital fund, serves as a beacon of hope and humanitarian assistance in response to the ongoing war in Ukraine. It also empowers the Church to reconstruct parishes, schools, and seminaries, and impart religious education to the laity.

The Catholic Relief Services Collection stands as a pillar of support, delivering expertise, aid, and compassion to the most impoverished nations worldwide. As a front-runner in responding to crises, Catholic Relief Services continues to play a pivotal role in disaster relief efforts.

The Church in Latin America extends its helping hand to a continent grappling with poverty, injustice, and economic-political turmoil.

The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa sponsors a multitude of essential pastoral programs that bolster the rapidly growing Church in the region. These programs include aid for Catholic schools, facilitating vocational training, education, and employment.

Contributions to the Collection for the Holy Father (Peter's Pence) empower Pope Francis to respond to direct appeals for vital assistance.

As we journey through this sacred season of Lent, please accept my warmest personal regards and the assurance of continued prayers.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Rev. James P. Powers
Bishop of Superior
