WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the main themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 1st Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading - Deuteronomy 26:4-10

- Moses recalls God's mighty works that freed the people from slavery in Egypt.
- Inspired by this memory they now bring forth the first fruits of their produce to honor the Lord in the Promised Land.

Psalms - 91:1-2, 10-15

- "Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble."
- We place our trust in God, who sustains us when we are in distress.

2nd Reading - Romans 10:8-13

- If we confess with the mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in our heart that God raised him, we will be saved.
- This salvation in Christ is available to all, there is no distinction between Jew and Greek.

Gospel - Luke 4:1-13

- Jesus, filled with the Holy Spirit, is led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days to be tempted by the devil.
- The Lord responds to the devil's temptations, quoting Scripture until the devil departs for a time.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When you feel tempted to do wrong, how do you remain strong in your faith?

Question for Youth: What is one thing you will do during Lent to become more open to God in your life?

Question for Adults: As you come to understand the temptation of Jesus in the desert, which one of the devil's offerings is hardest for you to resist?

ANNIVERSARY BREAKFAST THANK YOU

We were thrilled to have served 330 people at our free community breakfast to celebrate our 24th year in serving those in need in our community. Not only did our cooks create a delicious breakfast with our fully sponsored food - but we had fun with door prizes, an 80-item silent auction and an opportunity to socialize! Adding to the spirit of the event, we enjoyed the musical entertainment of Sam Dotterwick.

Thanks to all of our sponsoring businesses and individuals who covered the cost of the event and with proceeds, provided additional funds to serve our brothers and sisters. We are particularly grateful to those who volunteered their time to organize this event and to help on Sunday.

We look forward to celebrating our 25th Anniversary next year!
