

Psalm - 126:1-6

- "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy."
- The captivity that began in sorrow has now led to a return with laughter and rejoicing.

2nd Reading - Philippians 3:8-14

- Paul considers everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus as Lord.
- While we are straining toward the day of our resurrection, we pursue our goal: a life in Christ.

Gospel - John 8:1-11

- A woman caught in adultery is brought to Jesus as a crowd gathers around to stone her to death.
- The Lord responds to them by saying, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."
- After the crowd departs, Jesus does not condemn her, but urges her to go and sin no more.

THE THIRD SCRUTINY

This weekend we celebrate the Third Scrutiny for the Elect (Catechumens -those to be baptized) and Candidates (those to be received by profession of faith) who are in OCIA (formerly RCIA).

In the first Scrutiny, the emphasis is the living water that Jesus gives. In the second Scrutiny, the emphasis is the light and the healing of spiritual blindness. The Third Scrutiny emphasizes Jesus as “the Resurrection and the Life.”

In some years we hear the Gospel of the raising to life of Lazarus. Jesus in his obedience to his Father has the authority to give life to whom he will. The raising of Lazarus is an anticipation of what is to take place on the last day. It means that the believer has eternal life; and has passed from death to life. It is also – again – an anticipation of what is celebrated at Easter and in Baptism, resurrection and eternal life.

This Third Scrutiny celebrated on this day is primarily for the benefit of the Elect (Catechumens), but it reminds all the baptized of the promises God has made through Jesus of eternal life.

Impact

Bring faith to life.
Find life in faith.

Does your faith impact your daily life?

*Are you ready to see and experience life differently?
This is the day! Have faith in the risen Lord.*

Most of us have moments in which we go through the motions. We get up, go to work or school, work out, go out with friends, or enjoy quiet at home, and start the next day no different than the one before.

Occasionally, something powerful happens. We hear from a friend we haven't seen in a long time; we are struck by a moment of beauty, a difficult circumstance arises, or we simply find ourselves longing for more, aching for meaning, purpose, and impact.

This month at Sunday Mass, we hear the stories of the early communities of believers and what took place after Jesus' resurrection. The lives of the apostles and those who gathered with them were turned upside down by all they experienced in Jesus' ministry, passion, death, and resurrection. They had to look at their lives differently as a result.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, their hearts and minds were opened to the love of God in unexpected and powerful ways.

In response, they shared with others: they told the stories of Jesus, gave their time and resources in care of those in need, and came together as people in community with one another.

The same thing can happen to us: let us take this Easter season to open our minds and hearts to the love of God, and respond to this love by sharing: faith, time, prayer, talents, and resources, as Christ's people together.

Impact awaits!

Is doubt a bad thing?

What we can learn from "doubting Thomas."

The apostles were gathered in a locked room when Jesus came to them, offered them peace, and helped them to believe that he had risen from the dead. But Thomas was not there that day, and when he returned, he expressed his doubt. Now, centuries after that moment, we still know him as "doubting Thomas."

Is doubt a bad thing?
In and of itself, no. Doubt is actually part of the process of growing in faith. Our doubts show us the aspects of faith and discipleship that we need to bring to prayer, explore, and grow beyond. Which is exactly what Thomas did.

We can learn from Thomas. He expressed his doubts to the people whom he trusted and listened to their expressions of faith; he took his doubts to Christ, who showed him the way to faith; he moved from doubt to belief, later spreading the Gospel as a missionary.

What doubts do you have? To whom could you talk about these doubts? Have you taken your doubts to Jesus in prayer?

Follow Thomas' example, so that, in time, you may also say, "My Lord and my God!"

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

Sharing the hope of peace

In many of the post-resurrection Gospel narratives, Jesus greets the apostles by saying, "Peace be with you." His peace counteracts their confusion and fear, giving them the strength to live as his disciples in uncertain times.

As baptized Christians, we have been given the peace of the Lord; the Holy Spirit dwells with us; we know of God's love for us and for the world, and are called to share this love and peace, which is so much needed in our time. This is Jesus' message to all who follow him: we have been sent into the world to know and to share the peace of Christ in every circumstance in which peace is lacking.

"The first sign of hope should be the desire for peace in our world," Pope Francis states in his proclamation of the Jubilee Year 2025. "May the Jubilee remind us that those who are peacemakers will be called "children of God" (Mt

5:9). The need for peace challenges us all, and demands that concrete steps be taken. May diplomacy be tireless in its commitment to seek, with courage and creativity, every opportunity to undertake negotiations aimed at a lasting peace. Peace is at the heart of the risen Christ's message." (Spes non confundit, 8)

How do we share peace today?

Start at home. When conflicts arise, look for and bring a peaceful solution even when (especially when) peace requires compromise among family members.

Find ways to share peace with friends and co-workers. Rather than contributing to conflict, actively seek and build on areas of agreement among people..

Advocate and vote for peace. Be attentive to candidates and civic leaders who promote and work for just and peaceful solutions to conflict.

40 Cans for Lent 2024

Our Christ the King Council 16691 of the Knights of Columbus is again helping the St. Vincent de Paul food shelf with this year's 40 Cans for Lent. Can you help us? As much as you are able, please consider 40 cans (or boxes or packages) for Lent. Here is a list of items requested by our St. Vincent de Paul food shelf for the 2024 Cathedral collection. Their needs are very great this year. This list is somewhat different than last year's list.

Please do not purchase or donate items in glass jars, as they could break and cause a big mess. Plastic jars (such as plastic peanut butter jars) are fine. Please do not provide fresh foods (such as bread and fresh vegetables and fruits) and items requiring refrigeration, and please do not donate expired or opened items. PLEASE: The Food Shelf does not need canned vegetables and canned beans. Thank you!

Donations can be brought to Cathedral between now and Holy Thursday. We anticipate that items will be on display on the steps to the stage in Kress Hall. THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS DONATION! VIVAT JESUS!
