WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 5th Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading - Isaiah 43:16-21

- The Lord is doing something new and marvelous, inviting the people to see it.
- Springing forth, God provides a mighty, life-giving river for the people to drink.

Psalm - 126:1-6

- "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy."
- The captivity that began in sorrow has now led to a return with laughter and rejoicing.

2nd Reading - Philippians 3:8-14

- Paul considers everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus as Lord.
- While we are straining toward the day of our resurrection, we pursue our goal: a life in Christ.

Gospel - John 8:1-11

- A woman caught in adultery is brought to Jesus as a crowd gathers around to stone her to death.
- The Lord responds to them by saying, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."
- After the crowd departs, Jesus does not condemn her, but urges her to go and sin no more.

Question for Youth: Who among your family and friends do you need to forgive so that you can heal a broken relationship and experience newness?

Question for Adults: Against whom do you hold prejudices? Who do you believe is a greater sinner than yourself?
