WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes that we discover in the Mass Readings for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity.

1st Reading – Proverbs 8:22-31

- The wisdom of God was present before the act of creation, possessed by the Lord from the very beginning.
- Beside him as a craftsman, God's wisdom found delight in the human race.

Psalm – 8:4-9

- "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!"
- God has crowned humanity with glory and honor, taking its place amidst the wonders of creation.

2nd Reading – Romans 5:1-5

- Having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our faith in Jesus Christ.
- Our hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

Gospel – John 16:12-15

- Jesus promises his disciples that the Spirit of truth will guide and teach them.
- Everything that Jesus has from the Father will be declared to his disciples.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: God fills us with love. How, this week, will you show your family - your mom, dad, brothers, sisters, grandparents, cousins - that you love them as God loves them?

Question for Youth: When Jesus left the world, He sent the Holy Spirit to be with us. Have you ever given something important to someone else as a sign of your love for them? Have you ever experienced the Holy Spirit as a similar gift to you?

Question for Adults: Today we celebrate the relationship of love among the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In what similar community of love do you live?
