WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes that we find in the Mass Readings for the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

1st Reading – Genesis 14:18-20

- Melchizedek, a king and a priest, brings out bread and wine, offering a blessing to Abram.
- Abram gives a tenth of his possessions to Melchizedek in return.

Psalm – 110:1-4

- "You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek."
- God rules with power over the people and grants them his blessing.

2nd Reading – 1st Corinthians 11:23-26

- Paul reminds the people that Jesus defined and commanded the reception of the Eucharist.
- Paul then teaches that as often as they eat the bread and drink the cup, they proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Gospel – Luke 9:11b-17

- Jesus takes five loaves and two fish, blesses and gives them to a crowd of 5000 people.
- The people eat their fill, and there are twelve wicker baskets of leftover fragments.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How can you share what you have received from Jesus with others this week?

Question for Youth: Each week, when we celebrate the Holy Eucharist, we are asked to "do this in remembrance of me". How else do you acknowledge the importance of Jesus in your life? Through prayer? Through the ways that you treat others?

Question for Adults: How can you prepare yourself to be nourished by Jesus in the Eucharist this week?

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

THE EUCHARIST - PROVIDING FOR THE NEEDS OF THE SOUL

"Do you think that God merely expects you to bring his poor a morsel of bread, a scrap of meat, some soup and medicine? Oh! no, no, no, that was not his design when he chose you for all eternity to render him the services which you render him in the person of the poor; he expects you to provide for the needs of the soul as well as for those of the body. They are in need of the heavenly manna; they are in need of the Spirit of God, and where will you find it so that you may communicate it to them? In Holy Communion." St. Vincent de Paul

Join us in this mission of charity. Our next meeting is on Tuesday, June 24th at 6:00 p.m. in Kress Hall at the Cathedral.
