STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Am I waiting for the "right" time to become a good steward? Do I plan to share my time and talents "later"? Today's Gospel warns those who are procrastinating about stewardship to be prepared – "at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we discern in Mass readings for the 19th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Wisdom 18:6-9

- On the night of the Passover the children of Israel put their faith in God, offering sacrifice.
- The Lord punished their adversaries and destroyed their foes.

Psalm - 33:1,12,18-22

- "Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own."
- "We wait for the Lord, who is our help and our shield."

2nd Reading - Hebrews 11:1-2,8-19

- "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things unseen."
- Abraham is an example of faith, trusting in God when put to the test.

Gospel - Luke 12:32-48

- Jesus instructs his disciples, telling them that where their treasure is, there also will their hearts be.
- The Lord offers a parable about servants awaiting their master's return, saying that "much will be required of the person entrusted with much."

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us to always be ready to hear him. What are some ways that he speaks to us?

Question for Youth: If Jesus were to knock on your door today and give you a report card on your life as His disciple, what grade would you get? Where would be your areas for improvement?

Question for Adults: On a daily basis, what are some ways to keep yourself "ready for God to act?" How do you pay attention to God's often-less-than-obvious actions?

Impact

August 2025

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

Impact this month

Stop

Take a few moments each day to pause and talk with God about your life.

Look

Look around yourself. Are you attentive to the people in your life? To those who are in need? Do you need to change some aspect of your life in order to more fully focus on the things that are important?

Listen

Listen to God's voice through the readings at Mass and in daily prayer; listen to the people you love; listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit within you. How may God be calling you to gain perspective in life by growing in humble faith?

See clearly

Life gets out of control at times. Faith brings focus and perspective.

Anyone who uses glasses or contact lenses to correct vision knows what a difference it makes when things are in focus. Do you sometimes wish there was a corrective lens for life? At times, overcommitment creates a blur of activity; a personal or family crisis makes it difficult to focus on the tasks at hand; the constant desire for or acquisition of things distracts us from what is at the heart of authentic, meaningful life.

If we listen carefully to the readings at Mass this month, we will begin to gain insight into the path for bringing focus to our life: humble faith. Such faith recognizes that through it all, God is with us.

"What great need there is to promote an encounter with God, whose tender love values and loves the story of every person!...this requires a readiness to be open, when necessary, to new ways of seeing things and different ways of acting, for each generation is different and has its own challenges, dreams and questions." Pope Leo XIV, May 28, 2025

Faith brings needed perspective to everything. Secure in God's love, we are free to seek God and God's ways and embrace our call to be with and for others.

In humble faith, we take the "narrow gate" which at the same time expands our view toward eternal life with God. Through the lens of humble faith, we treasure on things that last and see clearly the path that the Lord sets before us.

With humble faith, our lives come into sharp focus: the blur of activity recedes as we see what is most important; we know that Jesus walks with us, and find peace and consolation through every trial; we learn to separate wants from needs, and focus instead on what is important – faith, family, friends, and especially those who need to know God's love and mercy through us.

What do you treasure?

When we think of “treasure” in relationship to stewardship, our thoughts often first, and perhaps only, go to money. Yet, when we hear how Jesus refers to treasure in the Gospel of Luke he speaks of much more than money: our “treasure” is all that is precious to us. What we “treasure” is a sign of what is important in our lives.

What do you treasure? Family? Security? Money? A sense of purpose or meaning in life? Each of these has the potential for good in our lives and the lives of others; with each we can also lose perspective, placing the person/thing/desire above God, making it an idol. It is this about which Jesus warns us.

Do we “treasure” the hope of Christ, stewarding it well by sharing it lavishly, sacrificially, abundantly as it has been given to us? Re-read the passage from Luke with this in mind (substitute “hope” for kingdom, recognizing that we have hope in the kingdom of God): “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you hope...” Jesus understands that placing God

Jesus said to his disciples:
“Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

above all things and building treasure in heaven may initially cause us anxiety or fear — doing so requires us to let go of false perceptions of control and calls us to place our trust instead in God who gives us everything that is good, including mercy, forgiveness, love, and hope. “Do not be afraid” to grow as a steward of hope!

This month, make a renewed commitment to steward hope in God through all you say and do. What action would help you make a “purse” that does not wear out, placing God and the needs of others before your own?

Being a steward of hope means treasuring the gifts of God by treasuring the presence and preciousness of the people around us, especially those most in need. Treasure those who are hungry, thirsty, in need of clothing or shelter, the sick, imprisoned, dying... the doubtful, ignorant, sinners, afflicted, those who offend and hurt us, all who are in need of our prayers. Give them hope as a steward of the grace and goodness of the Lord.

What does it mean to have faith?

Do you ever think about what it means to have faith? Faith is a gift, the grace of God who has created us with an inborn hunger to know him. When we respond to this grace, we come to believe in God and place our trust in him.

Faith is not something we possess, nor is it to be taken for granted. In the letter to the Hebrews, we hear, “Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and the evidence of things not seen.” Many people see faith as a denial of reason.

Faith and reason stand together, as it is God who created everything that exists, God who is revealed through scientific exploration, and in the beauty of the world around us, and is present the mystery of Christ’s love, poured out in sacramental signs.

Through the help of the Holy Spirit, we open our minds to the truth of God’s infinite love for each of us. Through the gift of faith, our hearts respond by embracing this love as the center of our lives.

Becoming Catholic

There is something beautiful happening these days. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church. The excitement and energy is very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

To Know, Love, and Serve Him:

Adult Formation Programming

“To Know, Love and Serve Him” are words that were published in 1885 in the first edition of the Baltimore Catechism in response to the question, “Why did God make you?” Even though this question and response has been part of Catholic culture for 140 years – and things have changed so much – it is still very relevant today.

How do we know, love and serve God in this complicated world of ours? It’s not always easy. But consider the progression of these three words: KNOW – LOVE – SERVE. The collective wisdom of the bishops* who created this text put these words in this order on purpose. They knew that to love and serve God, we first need to know Him.

Superior Catholics is pleased to share some opportunities to deepen your knowledge and relationship with God. All sessions are held in Kress Hall of the Cathedral.

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
September 4 – October 16

The Search

This seven-session course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session addresses a pointed question:

1. Who Are You?
2. Why a God?
3. What’s Our Story?
4. Who is Jesus?
5. Am I Saved?
6. Why a Church?
7. What Do You Seek?

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
October 23 – December 18

The Case for Jesus

This course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session draws evidence from both early Christian and non-Christian writings attesting to the authenticity, authorship, and dating of the Gospels, and gives an in-depth look at the Gospel accounts of Jesus’s Crucifixion, Resurrection, and the proclamation of Christ’s divinity.

1. Were the Gospels Anonymous?
2. The Early Church Fathers
3. Are the Gospels Biographies?
4. When were the Gospels Written?
5. The Kingdom of God and the Messiah
6. Did Jesus Claim to be God?
7. The Crucifixion of Jesus
8. The Resurrection of Jesus
9. Questions & Answers

Note: One session will view two videos to allow for the Thanksgiving holiday.

*The Baltimore Catechism was developed by the Catholic bishops of the United States in response to the tremendous influx of European immigrants in the mid-1800s. The simple question and answer format helped with the diversity of languages and educational levels.
