WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 22nd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Sirach 3:17-18,20,28-29

- A humble person is more beloved than a giver of gifts and finds favor with God.
- A wise person seeks to listen to the insights of people and proverbs.

Psalm – 68:4-7,10-11

- “God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.”
- God restores the land and gives a home to the forsaken.

2nd Reading – Hebrews 12:18-19,22-24a

- We approach Mount Zion, the city of the living God.
- Surrounded by countless angels and the assembly of heaven, we encounter Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant.

Gospel – Luke 14:1,7-14

- At a banquet, Jesus offers a parable on humility that invites people to sit in the lowest place.
- The Lord continues by inviting us to help people who are unable to repay us.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us that we should treat everyone as a guest. Who do you tend to shun or not be nice to?

Question for Youth: God asks us to do for others without hope of repayment. This past week, what did you do for someone else for which you won't be repaid? Who are the people most in need of your generosity?

Question for Adults: Who are the people living near you that you would find it most difficult to invite to a meal in your home? Or to invite to be part of your life?

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

See the Face of Christ, Be the Face of Christ - An Invitation to Serve

"The Lord won't ask us, "What did you study?"

"How many degrees do you have?" "How many works did you accomplish?" No, no. The Lord will say, "Come with me because I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me to drink ... that is the theme of the final exam on which we will be judged." " Keep constantly before your eyes the face of the poor."

Pope Francis

Our Invitation to Serve will be at weekend Masses on September 27th and 28th. We are inviting you to prayerfully consider growing in spirituality and friendship with us as we serve those in need.

August 12, 2025

Dear Pastors, Parish Directors, and Parish Life Coordinators,

On behalf of Bishop Powers, I am writing to you today with concern for the ongoing crisis in Gaza. As a Catholic community, we are called to respond with compassion to the immense suffering of Christians and other innocent victims of violence in the region. The Holy Father continues to call for a cease-fire and for aid to enter the territory, noting with great sorrow that "Gaza is starving."

The Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) and Catholic Relief Services (CRS) are on the ground providing vital emergency humanitarian relief, medical, and psychological care for the sick, malnourished, and wounded. They are also working to provide food, shelter, cash assistance, and hygiene supplies. Both organizations have well-established partnerships with the Catholic Church in the region, which allows them to respond quickly and efficiently.

We strongly encourage parishes that can participate in this special collection to do so "as they are able," knowing many are kicking off the Catholic Services Appeal this weekend. Parishioners can contribute through your parish's offertory collection at Mass, by making checks payable to your parish, or by using your parish's online giving platform. . Please clearly indicate "Special Collection for Gaza" in the memo line. We will ensure these funds are sent to CRS.

We understand and appreciate your ongoing commitment to local efforts, including the upcoming Catholic Services Appeal. Your unwavering generosity and compassionate response to this urgent humanitarian need are deeply valued.

Should you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Gratefully yours in the Lord,

Steve Tarnowski
Director of Development

Becoming Catholic

There is something beautiful happening these days. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church. The excitement and energy is very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

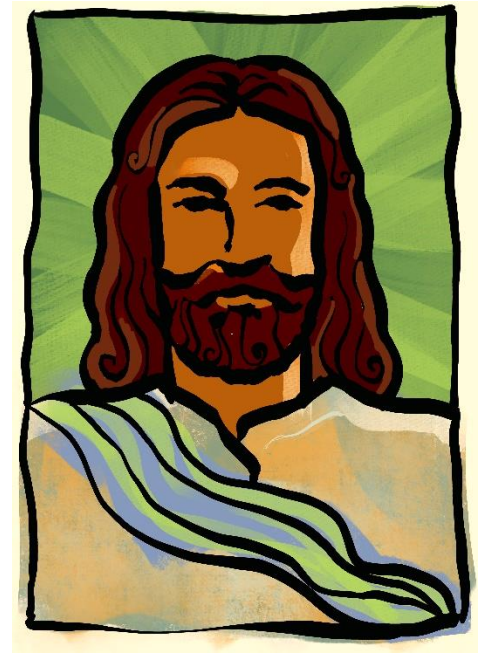

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

To Know, Love, and Serve Him:

Adult Formation Programming

“To Know, Love and Serve Him” are words that were published in 1885 in the first edition of the Baltimore Catechism in response to the question, “Why did God make you?” Even though this question and response has been part of Catholic culture for 140 years – and things have changed so much – it is still very relevant today.

How do we know, love and serve God in this complicated world of ours? It’s not always easy. But consider the progression of these three words: KNOW – LOVE – SERVE. The collective wisdom of the bishops* who created this text put these words in this order on purpose. They knew that to love and serve God, we first need to know Him.

Superior Catholics is pleased to share some opportunities to deepen your knowledge and relationship with God. All sessions are held in Kress Hall of the Cathedral.

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
September 4 – October 16

The Search

This seven-session course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session addresses a pointed question:

1. Who Are You?
2. Why a God?
3. What’s Our Story?
4. Who is Jesus?
5. Am I Saved?
6. Why a Church?
7. What Do You Seek?

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
October 23 – December 18

The Case for Jesus

This course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session draws evidence from both early Christian and non-Christian writings attesting to the authenticity, authorship, and dating of the Gospels, and gives an in-depth look at the Gospel accounts of Jesus’s Crucifixion, Resurrection, and the proclamation of Christ’s divinity.

1. Were the Gospels Anonymous?
2. The Early Church Fathers
3. Are the Gospels Biographies?
4. When were the Gospels Written?
5. The Kingdom of God and the Messiah
6. Did Jesus Claim to be God?
7. The Crucifixion of Jesus
8. The Resurrection of Jesus
9. Questions & Answers

Note: One session will view two videos to allow for the Thanksgiving holiday.

*The Baltimore Catechism was developed by the Catholic bishops of the United States in response to the tremendous influx of European immigrants in the mid-1800s. The simple question and answer format helped with the diversity of languages and educational levels.
