STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

When will I have given enough – of my income, of my time, of my talents? Today's Gospel suggests that only total stewardship will do: "When you have done all you have been commanded to do, say 'We are useless servants. We have done no more than our duty.'"

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for completing a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who have not yet filled one out, please do so before leaving Church today. No contribution is too small, and our parish aims for 100% participation. This year, our goal is $74,845.

Today, we face numerous challenges, including the shortage of priests. Our parish has a responsibility to support diocesan services and ministries, such as aiding vocations and educating seminarians, which serve as responses to these challenges.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's review some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 27th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4

- The prophet calls out to God for help amid violence, misery and destruction.
- God responds with a call to faith, for all things will come to fulfillment in the proper time.

Psalm - 95:1-2,6-9

- "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."
- We come before the Lord with joyful worship and open hearts.

2nd Reading - 2nd Timothy 1:6-8,13-14

- We stir into flame the gift of God that brings power, love, and self-control.
- We bear our hardships, trusting in the Lord Jesus and the help of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel - Luke 17:5-10

- The apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, and Jesus responds with the example of the mustard seed.
- Jesus then offers a parable of a servant, reminding us to remain faithful as we serve the Lord.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us that our faith is powerful and with it, we can do great things. We can forgive, love, and share with others. Which of these do you do most often?

Question for Youth: The Gospel tells us even a little bit of faith is enough to make amazing things happen. How are you keeping your faith alive and growing? What good things happen in your life because of your faith?

Question for Adults: Being "in Christ" means living as Christ teaches. What signs do you see in your life of generosity, forgiveness, hospitality, or any other of Jesus' teachings?

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.

October 2025

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

BE OVERWHELMED

Have you ever been so grateful for something - time with a cherished friend, a special gift, remission of serious illness, a particularly beautiful day or moment in time - that you were completely overwhelmed?

FAITH AND GRATITUDE GO HAND IN HAND

Jesus healed ten lepers. Nine presumably did what Jewish law prescribed and what Jesus instructed them to do, presenting themselves to the priests who would witness their healing. Only one, a Samaritan outsider, was so overcome with gratitude that he rushed back to Jesus and fell at his feet, praising God for the incredible gift he had been given. Jesus' response assured him not only that his healing was real but that his faith had saved him. Faith and gratitude go hand in hand in this encounter with the Lord, as it should for us today.

SEE GRACE IN YOUR MIDST

Faithful and faith-filled living leads us to be aware of our blessings and to grow in gratitude for them, even in the darkest of times. Those who struggle with physical illness may be challenged to be grateful until they think about the skill of their doctor or the companionship of a friend; recalling a special moment with a deceased parent or sibling may console us in grief; a time of loneliness may lead us to quiet prayer and new insight. Living gratefully helps us to see God's hand in our lives.

EVEN WHEN IT IS HARD

Growing in gratitude is simple, but for most of us, it takes conscious effort at first. Each time we are tempted to whine, focus on what we want rather than what we may actually need, or look at all that is not the way we wish it were, we must turn our minds instead toward the many ways in which we have been blessed. Over time this gratefulness mindset becomes more natural.

STEWARDSHIP: GRACE IN ACTION

Like the leper who returned to give thanks, we are called to express our gratitude in words and actions. This grateful response is what stewardship is all about. A steward cares for, nurtures, and shares all that has been entrusted to him or her out of gratitude for the abundant gifts that have been given.

HOW WILL YOU BE A GOOD STEWARD?

For what are you thankful today? What gift or blessing, large or small, is a sign of the abundance of God's grace? How will you fall at Jesus' feet, proclaiming God's glory, and express your grateful response for this gift through words or actions, in caring or sharing?

Who is a Christian steward?
One who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord.

Stewardship
A Disciple's Response p. 9

In all circumstances, give thanks.

The Gospels on October 20 and 26 lead us to be persistent and humble in prayer. It seems fitting for us to reflect on the source and summit of our lives, the Eucharist, which is the foundational prayer for us as Catholic Christians, the very heart and center of our lives.

Through the Eucharist we are formed as disciples and nourished to live Christ's mission of love, service, compassion, forgiveness and mercy in the world. Our communal prayer in the Mass shapes our living, and challenges us to grow as Christian people in communion with one another for the life of the world. As we experience Christ's presence in the Word proclaimed, in the the priest "in persona Christi" (in the person of Christ), in the presence of one another as members of Christ's body, and most especially in the bread and wine which are transformed into Christ's body and blood, we are led to conversion in Christ and are strengthened to live as Jesus' disciples.

Jesus, the very image of God, and his way of sacrificial, self-giving love is the ultimate expression of stewardship. In this way we can say that the Mass forms us as disciples to live as good stewards, as people who willingly give what we have been given, in fulfillment of God's loving will. Bishop Sylvester Ryan eloquently captures this: "The heart of the spirituality of a steward is how we live out what we celebrate, offer and receive in the Eucharist. The Eucharist propels us into the world, towards the needy and the afflicted, the orphan and the alien."

The very meaning of the word "Eucharist" is "thanksgiving." We gather in thanksgiving for God's love and providence;

The liturgical calendar of Sundays, feasts and seasons opens up for us the entire Paschal Mystery of God's love for us in Christ. With each season and its particular focus and character, we are led to reflect on and shape our living as God's people. By celebrating the seasons well, our lives take on the rhythm of the Paschal Mystery;

In song, particularly the psalms, acclamations, and songs of praise, which we raise our hearts and minds to God, who is the giver of all good gifts; in prayer, we bring our needs, ask for forgiveness, profess our faith, recall Christ's passion, death, and resurrection; in the word of God, through which we are immersed in salvation history, hear the story of our ancestors in faith, walk with Jesus and the early community of believers, and are urged to live as faithful followers of Christ; in the Eucharistic prayer and reception of Holy Communion, through which we are drawn deeply into Christ's sacrifice of love, receive his very body and blood, and are called into communion with Christ and one another;

From the Mass, we are sent forth in mission, to live as the bearers of Christ's merciful love in the world.

IMPACT THIS MONTH

Jesus asks us to bring our needs to God in prayer. Take time this month to do so. Discern how faith may shape the way you live your life.

See: Pause at the end of each day. Recall the moments in which you perceive God's presence.

Linger: Stay quiet for a few minutes, lingering in this awareness of God.

Consider: How does this awareness of God strengthen your faith? What concerns, obstacles, or situations do you bring to God at this time?

Thank: Say a prayer of gratitude to God for the blessing of this graced time.

Share: Share your thoughts, questions, and reflections with a trusted friend or spiritual companion.

Respond: Be resolved to put in faith in action as your trust in God and relationship with the Lord grows and deepens.

Reflection on the Eucharist from Grateful Disciples, pages 9-10

IN TRUE HUMILITY

What comes to mind when you hear the word "humility?" Humility is a quality that has great impact when we experience it in another. The humble person seems to understand his or her place in the world and as a result is not consumed by the constant pursuit of what he or she does not have, freeing him or her to value and care for others.

Humility can be misunderstood. Being humble does not mean acting as though we do not have talents or expertise that need to be shared. When we were children, we might have been told to be humble rather than being taught not to be prideful. There is a difference. As C.S. Lewis noted, "Humility is not thinking less of yourself; it is thinking of yourself less."

Jesus urges us to take the call to humility to heart: "For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." (Luke 18:9-14) Not only this, we are assured in our readings that God hears the cries of the poor and the oppressed and we are called to do the same.

In true humility, we see the needs of others and seek to follow Jesus' humble, self-giving way. We are humble when we put others' needs before our less important desires. We are humble when we live each day with the conviction that we have been entrusted with much and have responsibility to use it, to steward it, well.

Becoming Catholic

There is something beautiful happening these days. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church. The excitement and energy is very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

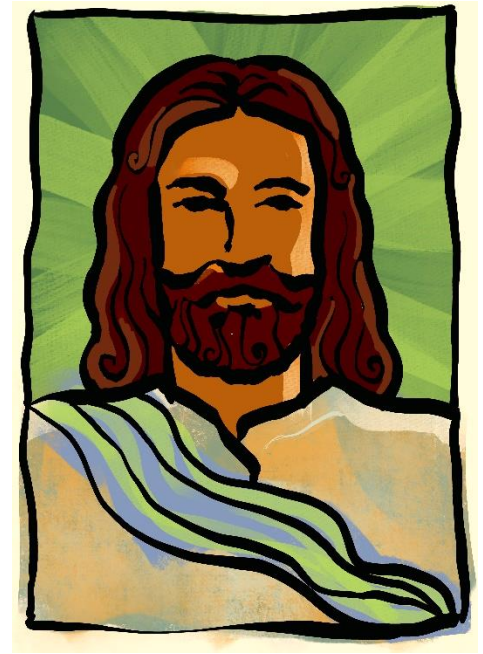

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

To Know, Love, and Serve Him:

Adult Formation Programming

“To Know, Love and Serve Him” are words that were published in 1885 in the first edition of the Baltimore Catechism in response to the question, “Why did God make you?” Even though this question and response has been part of Catholic culture for 140 years – and things have changed so much – it is still very relevant today.

How do we know, love and serve God in this complicated world of ours? It’s not always easy. But consider the progression of these three words: KNOW – LOVE – SERVE. The collective wisdom of the bishops* who created this text put these words in this order on purpose. They knew that to love and serve God, we first need to know Him.

Superior Catholics is pleased to share some opportunities to deepen your knowledge and relationship with God. All sessions are held in Kress Hall of the Cathedral.

The Case for Jesus

This course is presented as a video & discussion series. 3. Are the Gospels Biographies?
4. When were the Gospels Written?
5. The Kingdom of God and the Messiah
6. Did Jesus Claim to be God?
7. The Crucifixion of Jesus
