WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 26th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Amos 6:1a,4-7

- Amos calls out the wealthy and complacent, who have overlooked the collapse of the people.
- Their wanton revelry will be done away with, and they will be the first to go into exile.

Psalms – 146:7-10

- “Praise the Lord, my soul”
- God protects and sustains all those in need.

2nd Reading – 1st Timothy 6:11-16

- Timothy is urged to live virtuously as he holds firm in his faith.
- Jesus Christ, King of kings and Lord of lords, has all honor and eternal power.

Gospel – Luke 16:19-31

- Jesus offers the parable of Lazarus and the rich man, revealing the reversal of fortune in the afterlife.
- In the parable Christ notes that if people do not listen to “Moses and the prophets” they will not believe, even if someone should rise from the dead.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us to share what we have with others. What do you have that you are able to share?

Question for Youth: The Gospel story tells us that we are judged by what we do or don't do for the poor and needy. How are you currently reaching out to those in need? What more could you do?

Question for Adults: What choices can you or have you made to balance your own life with those who are homeless, poor and in need of assistance for daily living? How does this Gospel reading inform you about that?

help a child

When you sponsor through Unbound, you help a child and family achieve their God-given potential. You walk with them on their path out of poverty.

encourage a youth

Getting an education can be especially hard for young people faced with poverty. Your support provides financial resources and encouragement. It says, "I believe in you."

befriend an elder

Elders often experience challenges related to nutrition, health and social isolation. Your support helps an elder with needs like food, health care, home visits and group activities.

UNBOUND

"Unbound has given me a way to put my faith in action. As an Unbound sponsor, I have had the opportunity to be part of a reliable community which gives hope and helps others to achieve their dreams."

— Lillian Acevedo, Unbound sponsor

WHO WE ARE

Unbound is an international development organization founded by lay Catholics and grounded in the Gospel call to put the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable first. We build relationships of mutual respect that bridge cultural, economic and religious divides. We work side by side with people of diverse faith traditions in Latin America, Asia and Africa.

HOW WE WORK

We believe the surest path out of poverty is a self-directed one. Sponsored individuals and families use your support to work toward goals like education, dignified housing, better nutrition and developing livelihoods. Mothers lead the way in our programs through active participation in small groups. From accessing microloans to starting small businesses and forming their own credit cooperatives, mothers are creating paths to self-sufficiency for their families.

HIGHLY RATED STEWARDSHIP

Our commitment to excellent financial stewardship of the funds you entrust to us earns Unbound top ratings from independent charity evaluators like the BBB Wise Giving Alliance and others.
