"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's review the themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 25th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Amos 8:4-7

- Amos calls out those who cheat and steal from the poor.
- The Lord has sworn that this injustice will never be forgotten.

Psalm - 113:1-2,4-8

- "Praise the Lord, who lifts up the poor."
- The Lord, enthroned in heaven, raises up the lowly and seats them with the princes of his own people.

2nd Reading - 1st Timothy 2:1-8

- We are exhorted to pray for those in authority, that we might lead a quiet and tranquil life.
- The one mediator between God and humanity, Jesus Christ, gave himself as a ransom for all.

Gospel - Luke 16:1-13

- Jesus offers a parable to his disciples about a dishonest steward who squandered his master's property.
- The Lord tells us that we cannot serve two masters; we must choose between God and mammon.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Clothes, food, toys all cost money. How do you keep your faith more important than money?

Question for Youth: The Gospel tells us that money can get in the way of serving God. How can you use all that you have (possessions, money, time, talent) to serve God?

Question for Adults: Money is an important part of modern life. Suggest one or two ways you can keep the need for money in balance with your faith.
