Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? ... In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." - Lk 14:28, 33

MASS INTENTIONS

We are in need of Mass intentions.
If you are looking for a way to remember a deceased loved one, honor a birthday or special event, or pray for a special need, having a Mass said may be the perfect answer. Mass Intention envelopes can be found in the back of the church. Suggested donation is $20.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 23rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Wisdom 9:13-18b

- Human lives are mortal, limited, and comprehend with difficulty.
- God's counsel in heaven transcends our reach.

Psalms - 90:3-6, 12-17

- "In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge."
- We call upon the Almighty, for we are dust and merely a moment in God's sight.

2nd Reading - Philemon 1:9-10, 12-17

- Paul, an old man and a prisoner, sends Onesimus back to Philemon.
- Although Onesimus was a slave, Paul asks that he be received as a beloved brother.

Gospel - Luke 14:25-33

- Jesus speaks to the crowds, reminding them that to follow him means putting aside one's own life.
- The Lord offers the examples of waging war and a construction project in order to make it clear that they must know the cost of discipleship before they commit to Christ.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus says that in order to be one of his followers, we must be close to him. When do you feel closest to Jesus?

Question for Youth: Jesus tells his disciples that they must renounce their possessions in order to be His disciple. If you had to, could you leave everything behind to be with God? What would hold you back? How much of a struggle would it be?

Question for Adults: Today's Gospel is demanding. How do you as a modern man or woman "denounce your possessions?" What does this mean for you?
