CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for completing a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who have not yet filled one out, please do so before leaving Church today. No contribution is too small, and our parish aims for 100% participation. This year, our goal is $74,845.

Today, we face numerous challenges, including the shortage of priests. Our parish has a responsibility to support diocesan services and ministries, such as aiding vocations and educating seminarians, which serve as responses to these challenges.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

There are abundant selections for the Feast of All Souls, and depending on the Mass you attend you may hear any one of the following:

Old Testament

- Wisdom 3:1-9 "The souls of the just are in the hands of God..."
- Wisdom 4:7-15 "The just man, though he die early, shall be at rest."

- Isaiah 25:6-9 "On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide..."

Responsorial Psalm

- 23 "The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want."
- 25 "To you, O Lord, I lift my soul"
- 27 "The Lord is my light and my salvation"

New Testament

- Romans 5:5-11 "Hope does not disappoint..."
- Romans 5:17-21 "Where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more..."
- Romans 6:3-9 "As Christ was raised...we too might live..."
- Romans 8:14-23 "Those led by the Spirit of God and sons of God..."
- Romans 8:31b-35,37-39 "If God is for us, who can be against us?"
- Romans 14:7-9,10c-12 "If we live, we live for the Lord..."
- 1st Corinthians 15:20-28 "Christ has been raised from the dead..."
- 1st Corinthians 15:51-57 "Behold, I tell you a mystery..."
- 2nd Corinthians 4:14-5:1 "We have a building from God..."
- 2nd Corinthians 5:1,6-10 "We are courageous..."
- Philippians 3:20-21 "Our citizenship is in heaven..."
- 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18 "We believe that Jesus died and rose..."
- 2nd Timothy 2:8-13 "If we have died with him, we shall live with him..."

Gospel

- Matthew 5:1-12a "Blessed are the poor in spirit..."
- Matthew 11:25-30 "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened..."
- Matthew 25:31-46 "As a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."
- Luke 7:11-17 "Young man, I tell you, arise!"
- Luke 23:44ff; 24:1-6a "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit."
- Luke 24:13-16,28-35 "The Lord has truly been raised..."
- John 5:24-29 "Whoever hears my word and believes...has eternal life."
- John 6:37-40 "I shall raise him up on the last day."
- John 6:51-59 "I am the living bread that came down from heaven."
- John 11:17-27 "I am the resurrection and the life..."
- John 11:32-45 "Lazarus, come out!"
- John 14:1-6 "I am the way, and the truth and the life..."

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Fr. Andrew

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Recently we learned of the death of one of those who we have assisted over the years. We were reminded of the voicemail they left us one Christmas Day. "Thank you for assisting me. You did not know this, but I was thinking about suicide before you assisted me. You gave me hope. You gave me hope. Merry Christmas".

The weekend of November 15 and 16 we will have our annual appeal. We are asking you to offer a gift to our Society to allow us to serve our brothers and sisters. Oftentimes, we are an answer to prayer and a source of hope to those in desperate need in our community.

Please prayerfully consider a generous donation. This year in particular, we are relying on you to assure we need not turn anyone away for lack of funds.

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

Choose abundance.

This month, we celebrate Thanksgiving. Many will gather at table with family and friends, eat favorite foods, and pause to share the things for which they are thankful. While it is wonderful to have this annual time for giving and sharing gratitude, every day can and should be a day for thanks-giving, for calling to mind the many blessings of life, faith, relationships, talents and gifts, material and financial resources.

This isn't a simple glass-half-empty or glass-half-full sort of thing. Many of us have been taught to think about life through a lens of scarcity: What is missing? What needs fixing? An attitude of gratitude leads us to look at life instead through a perspective of abundance. We see that each day and all that surrounds us is a gift from God, and grow in our desire to share with others out of gratitude for our many blessings.

Make choosing abundance over scarcity a habit.

It is easy to get caught up in our daily routines and activities and lose sight of God's grace and abundance in our midst. People who study the formation of habits tell us that it helps to prompt ourselves to remember what we are trying to make part of life. Following the prompt, practice the behavior, and then pay attention to the difference the habit makes in order for it to stick.

At first, this may seem awkward or forced. Stick with it! You'll soon recognize God's abundant grace beyond what you are able to comprehend. Such a grateful life does take practice. It is sure to have lasting impact, so that your life will be full and overflowing with abundance!

A thanksgiving prayer

Good and gracious God, you are the source of every good gift, of all we are and have and will be. We give you thanks this day for the abundant blessings of life, faith, family, and friends, for the beauty of creation and all that reminds us of your goodness. Open our hearts to perceive your grace in our midst, our minds to learn and know your truth, and our hands to share your loving presence in the world. Guide us as we commit ourselves to living as good and faithful stewards of the many gifts you have given us. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, through the working of the Holy Spirit. One God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Impact
this month

1. Prompt yourself. Designate time each day to call yourself to a moment of gratitude.
2. Practice. Begin the day with a prayer of gratitude. Express thanksgiving at meals. End the day noticing the many times you were blessed.
3. Pay attention. Ask God to guide you to develop a grateful heart. Out of gratitude, share your time and resources more readily with others.

Stay awake!

It happens to the best of us. We grow complacent, weary, blind to the love of God and the needs of others.

"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come."
(MT 24:42)

Jesus' message is clear. We do not know when Christ will return in ultimate, final glory, establishing forever the kingdom of God on earth. This is not intended to frighten us, but to wake us up, reminding us to be watchful and ready.

Wake up to God's Purposes

We must admit that we are often not fully awake. Our lives take on a particular rhythm of interactions and activities, for better or worse, and unless we are intentional about it, faith is not a factor in our daily lives. Staying awake is about living "on purpose," keeping God's purposes in mind. Jesus helps us understand that God's way is about putting God and others first. God's way is to be awake to the people who need care, mercy, forgiveness, and compassion. God's way is to be watchful for systems and situations that are not just, in which peace is desperately needed, at home, in local communities, in our nation and in the world.

Live On Purpose

To be awake is to be constantly attentive to the ways in which we may respond to the people and situations that need God's love. Living each day on purpose, intentionally shaping our daily interactions and decisions out of love of God and neighbor insures that we will be ready "on the day the Lord will come."

Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

1 Corinthians 3:16

This year, the Sunday before Thanksgiving is the final Sunday of the liturgical year, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. We are baptized into Christ's life as priest, prophet, and king. Today, we are reminded that following Jesus' kingship is not about earthly power, but rather of humble obedience to God's will. "The Lord wishes to spread His kingdom also by means of the laity, namely, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace....Clearly then a great promise and a great trust is committed to the disciples: 'All things are yours, and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.' (1 Cor 3:23) (LG, 36)

This mission of spreading Christ's kingdom is sacred, although not always easy. Faith in Jesus Christ calls us to persevere, to "stick with it" even when it is difficult to do so. Our faith is sure to be tested, by the circumstances of daily life, by aspects of our social and cultural surroundings, by the knowledge that many in our world suffer the effects of violence, poverty, war, and injustice.

Throughout his earthly ministry, in his death on the cross, and in his resurrection, Jesus helps us to grasp the implications of discipleship, and he encourages us to keep the wider view, certain that the challenges of the moment will not have the final word. Jesus, the Word made flesh, the king of the universe, is that final word, that of truth, life, holiness, grace, justice, love, and peace.

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.

Becoming Catholic

There is something beautiful happening these days. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church. The excitement and energy is very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

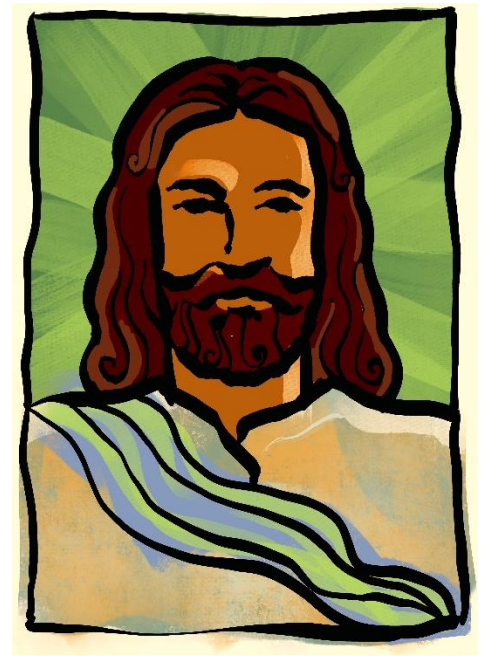

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kathyd@superiorcatholics.org or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

To Know, Love, and Serve Him:

Adult Formation Programming

“To Know, Love and Serve Him” are words that were published in 1885 in the first edition of the Baltimore Catechism in response to the question, “Why did God make you?” Even though this question and response has been part of Catholic culture for 140 years – and things have changed so much – it is still very relevant today.

How do we know, love and serve God in this complicated world of ours? It’s not always easy. But consider the progression of these three words: KNOW – LOVE – SERVE. The collective wisdom of the bishops* who created this text put these words in this order on purpose. They knew that to love and serve God, we first need to know Him.

Superior Catholics is pleased to share some opportunities to deepen your knowledge and relationship with God. All sessions are held in Kress Hall of the Cathedral.

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
September 4 – October 16

The Search

This seven-session course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session addresses a pointed question:

1. Who Are You?
2. Why a God?
3. What’s Our Story?
4. Who is Jesus?
5. Am I Saved?
6. Why a Church?
7. What Do You Seek?

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
October 23 – December 18

The Case for Jesus

This course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session draws evidence from both early Christian and non-Christian writings attesting to the authenticity, authorship, and dating of the Gospels, and gives an in-depth look at the Gospel accounts of Jesus’s Crucifixion, Resurrection, and the proclamation of Christ’s divinity.

1. Were the Gospels Anonymous?
2. The Early Church Fathers
3. Are the Gospels Biographies?
4. When were the Gospels Written?
5. The Kingdom of God and the Messiah
6. Did Jesus Claim to be God?
7. The Crucifixion of Jesus
8. The Resurrection of Jesus
9. Questions & Answers

Note: One session will view two videos to allow for the Thanksgiving holiday.

*The Baltimore Catechism was developed by the Catholic bishops of the United States in response to the tremendous influx of European immigrants in the mid-1800s. The simple question and answer format helped with the diversity of languages and educational levels.

2025-2026 RELIGIOUS ED

YES!!!!!! It's that time of year again! Back-to-School shopping is already underway, and we are excited for the return to Kress Hall for Religious Ed classes. Scan the QR code or register using our Google Form.

Interested in teaching as a Catechist? A meeting will be held in Kress Hall on Wednesday, Sept 10th beginning at 6pm (doors open at 5:30 for some food and social time). We are looking for Confirmation Catechists, as well as teachers and aides for all grades. PLEASE TAKE NOTE: If you want to participate 1 time or every time, your time and talent are welcome! This is a flexible volunteering opportunity!

Classes are held Wednesdays in Kress Hall. PreK - 6th grade classes from 5:30-6:30pm. 7th grade - Confirmation class from 7-8pm.
