WE REMEMBER THEM

For the month of November, we are once again sponsoring Remember Our Loved Ones. A Memory Board of pictures of deceased family members and friends will be provided in the Church. (Put your name on the back of your pictures for a safe return). We will also honor Holy Assumption Parishioners who have died in the past year. Pictures can be put in the collection basket, mailed, or dropped off at the Parish Office during office hours by Thursday, October 30th. There will be a candle lit at the Sunday, November 2nd Mass for each of these people who has died since November 2024. Thank you.

Those on the Prayer List are usually listed for four weeks unless notified otherwise

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 30th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Sirach 35:12-14,16-18

- The Lord is a God of justice, who knows no favorites.
- The prayers of the lowly and the one who serves God willingly are heard.

Psalms - 34:2-3,17-19,23

- "The Lord hears the cry of the poor."
- The Lord confronts evildoers and redeems the brokenhearted.

2nd Reading - 2nd Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

- Paul has competed well and finished the race; he has kept the faith.
- While everyone else deserted him, the Lord stood by and gave him strength.

Gospel - Luke 18:9-14

- Jesus offers a parable about a Pharisee and a tax collector, directing it to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else.
- The Pharisee's words had little effect; however, the tax collector's humble prayer was heard in heaven.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us to be humble – but what does that mean? How do you show you are humble?

Question for Youth: God knows when we are doing things just for show, and when they come from the goodness of our heart. When have you caught yourself doing something just to be more popular or liked? How does it feel to do something that you know is good and just?

Question for Adults: This Gospel reading suggests that we approach God and each other with humility. What does this mean, in practical terms? How do we "humble" ourselves? What does that mean?

YOUTH'S CORNER

Our confirmation students enjoyed a fantastic retreat last weekend called "Never Alone" presented by NET Ministries. The youth spent the weekend in Kress Hall and welcomed the Holy Spirit as they prepared for the Sacrament of Confirmation. A HUGE thank you to the Knights of Columbus council #499 for preparing and serving all our meals, as you have done each year. Our retreats would not be successful without your help.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

THE LORD HEARS THE CRY OF THE POOR - WILL WE RESPOND?

In October, our Society will likely receive 200 calls for assistance. These calls are coming from families who have had their utilities disconnected, households facing eviction, and those who are homeless trying to secure housing as the temperatures dip to freezing. This is the first time in several years that we are concerned that we could run out of funds, unless you, our donors, respond to our annual appeal.

We understand that at this time of year there are so many pleas for financial support. Please prayerfully consider a gift to serve our brothers and sisters in our community who are desperate for our help through a generous tax-deductible gift.

In the words of a text from a person we are assisting, "Your guy's service is a true blessing to us and our whole area. Thank you."

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.
