WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's review some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 27th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4

- The prophet calls out to God for help amid violence, misery and destruction.
- God responds with a call to faith, for all things will come to fulfillment in the proper time.

Psalms - 95:1-2,6-9

- "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."
- We come before the Lord with joyful worship and open hearts.

2nd Reading - 2nd Timothy 1:6-8,13-14

- We stir into flame the gift of God that brings power, love, and self-control.
- We bear our hardships, trusting in the Lord Jesus and the help of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel - Luke 17:5-10

- The apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, and Jesus responds with the example of the mustard seed.
- Jesus then offers a parable of a servant, reminding us to remain faithful as we serve the Lord.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us that our faith is powerful and with it, we can do great things. We can forgive, love, and share with others. Which of these do you do most often?

Question for Youth: The Gospel tells us even a little bit of faith is enough to make amazing things happen. How are you keeping your faith alive and growing? What good things happen in your life because of your faith?

Question for Adults: Being "in Christ" means living as Christ teaches. What signs do you see in your life of generosity, forgiveness, hospitality, or any other of Jesus' teachings?

ASANTE SANA--THANK YOU

No matter what language we use, words cannot convey our appreciation and thanks to everyone who contributed to make this year's Lasagna Dinner a huge success. We've heard the saying, "It takes a village to raise a child." Well, we say, "It takes a parish family to pull off a church dinner." For the cooks and bakers, salad makers, servers, clean-up crew, dishwashers and ALL who pitched in everywhere as needed, we thank you. The dinner grossed $2698.00 all of which will benefit the orphans and other school and medical projects. God bless you.

Thank you,

The Kisa Mission Group

From accessing microloans to starting small businesses and forming their own credit cooperatives, mothers are creating paths to self-sufficiency for their families.

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.
